VOLUME II

JAMES WOOD HIGH SCHOOL
FREDERICK COUNTY
WINCHESTER, VIRGINIA

FOREWORD

The span between our child's world and the adult's world looked very long when we started across it twelve years ago. As we moved through life, we found that each new experience and each bit of knowledge gained was a stepping stone leading to our future success.

With the help and guidance of our teachers and administrators, we fought our shortcomings with fortitude and our weaknesses with faith. We have now arrived at our destination, that of being not only a senior, but also an adult citizen and leader.

As we leave the halls of James Wood and venture into the vast world with its many problems, we look back with nostalgia on our high school days.

These days can never be relived, yet the fond memories of them can be recaptured among the scenes where they were enacted and at the places that provided their background.

We see ourselves once again at the pool the day school let out — rushing through the stores on Christmas Eve — laughing and crying at the local movie theatre — chatting with our friends at the corner drug store and dancing to the latest records at the War Memorial Building.

Throughout our 1961 yearbook, we, the senior class of '61', hope to share with you the highpoints of our memories.

We, therefore, present to you

"OUR COUNTY"

ALMA MATER

Gore School

By the city that he founded,
Heart of Frederick lands,
James Wood High, our Alma Mater,
In her beauty stands.
From five schools of age and service came her history.
Now we all give full devotion,
James Wood, Hail to thee.

Days with James Wood ne'er are over for with school days through,
As alumnae we will ever
keep her service true.
Be our years but few or many,
fraught with joy or woe.
We will sing to James Wood praises, whereso'er we go.

Tho for future we are planning
lives of useful joy,
Memories of youth are longest
May they never cloy.
Onward ever! be the watchword
conquer and prevail,
Hail to thee, dear James Wood High School!
Hail to thee! All Hail!

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Mr. Archie Manuel, we thank you for your untiring patience and guidance shown to each student.

We, the senior class of 1961 have finally reached our long strived for goal. As we look back on our high school days, we realize that they have been made brighter and more worthwhile only through the unceasing efforts of our faculty. Each of us would like to thank them sincerely.

For the guidance and time Mrs. Rebecca Whirlock has so gladly given all of us, we are greatly indebted.

IN APPRECIATION

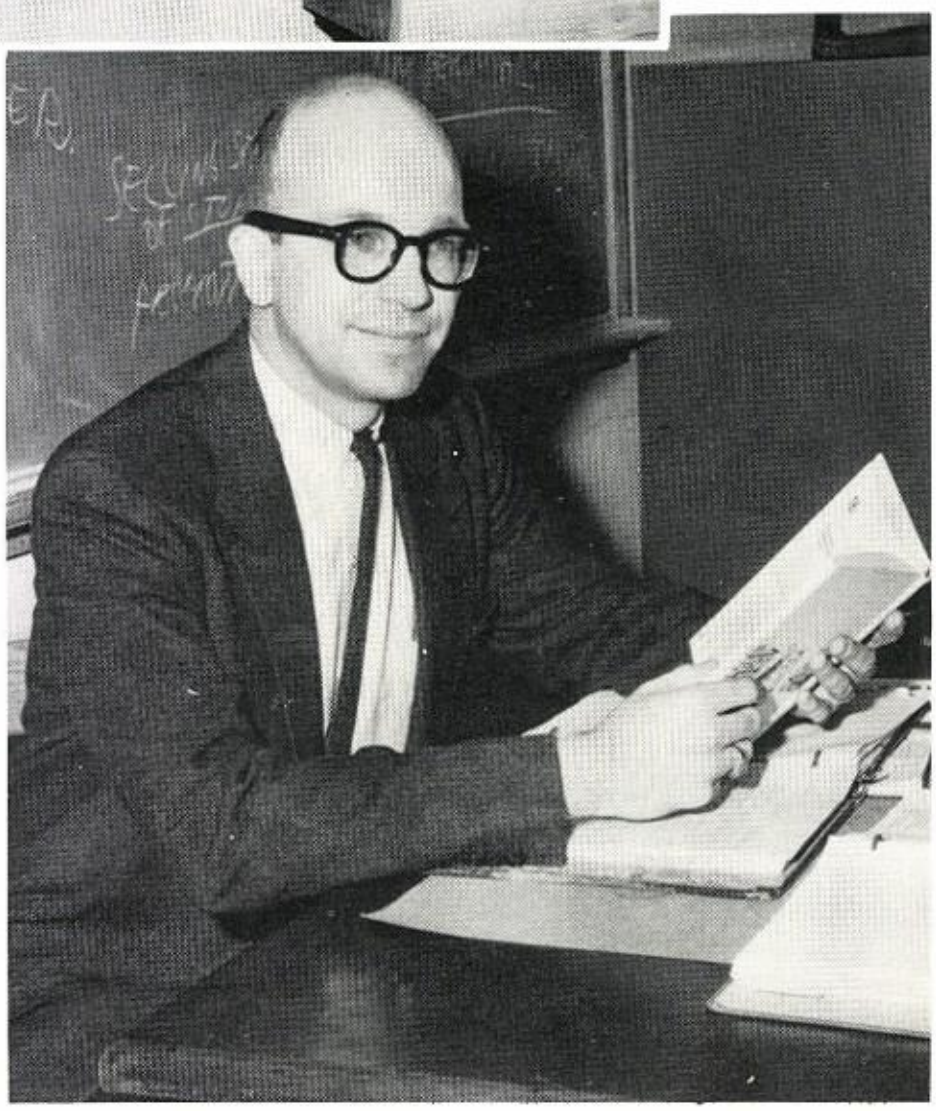
To Mr. Eugene Funkhouser goes our very special thanks for bringing our country's democratic government closer to our hearts and minds.

And to Mrs. Mildred Saunders goes a very dear thanks for her patience, her continuous smile, and her faithful encouragement. Without her our high school days would have lacked much.

DEDICATION

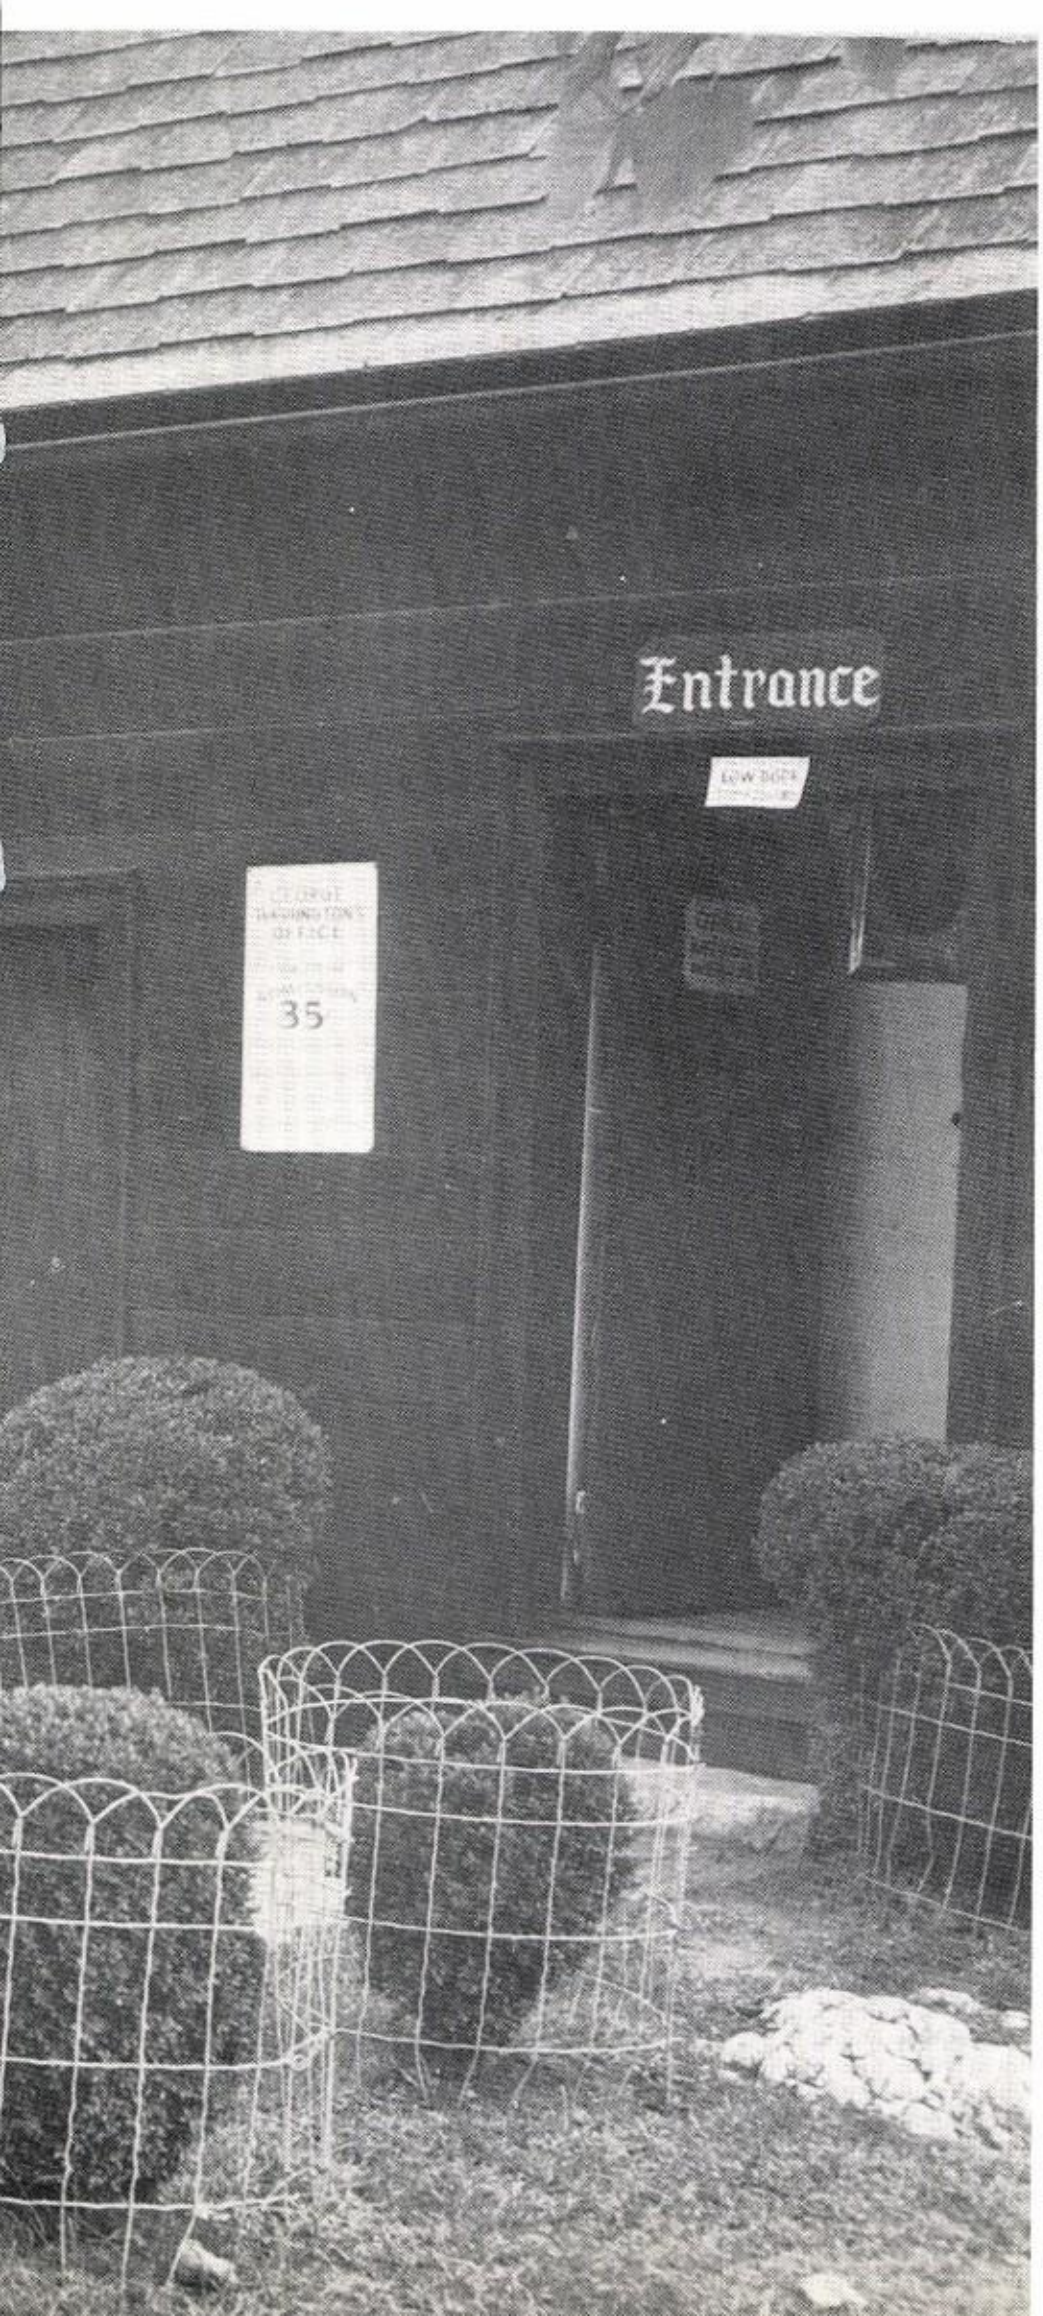
The summer night was hot and humid, the type of weather when even the dusk brought stifling heat. Inside the walls of James Wood High School the 1961 Woodbine Staff was hard at work. Mr. James Biddle stood before them helping, guiding, and teaching them the best and most correct methods for producing a memorable yearbook.

We, the senior class of 1961, realize how much the Woodbine means to everyone and how without you, Mr. James Biddle, there would be no Woodbine. Therefore, we wish to thank you and show our deep appreciation for the many nights and days you have given us so freely, for the burdens you have shouldered, and the many students you have helped by dedicating this, our 1961 Woodbine to you.



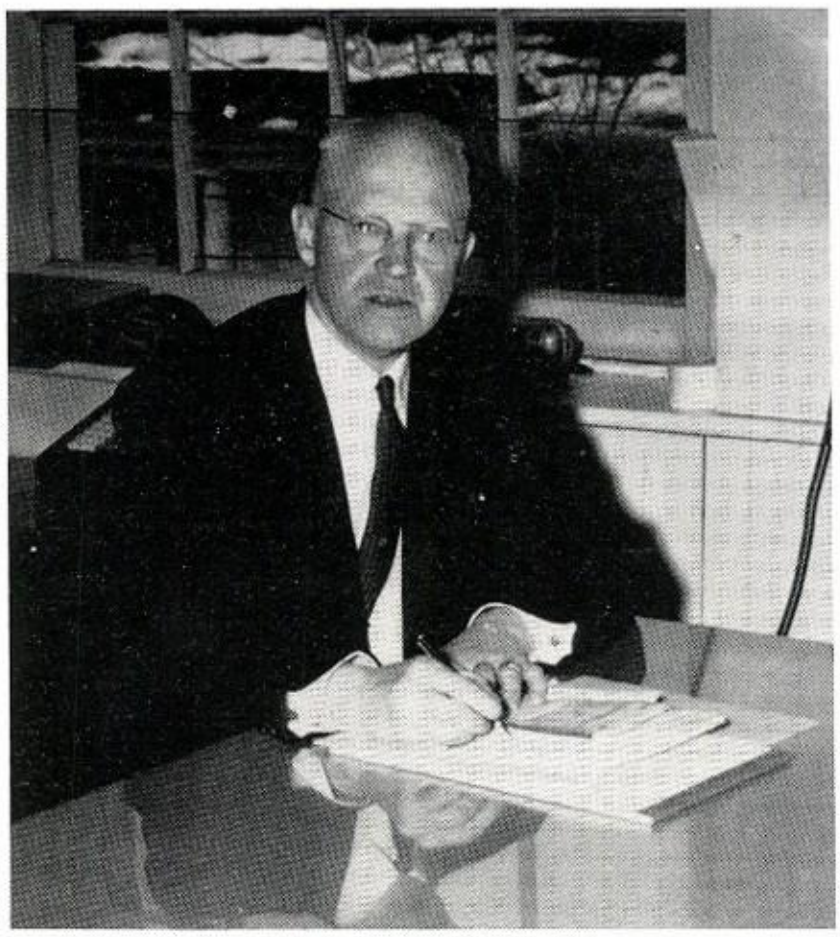
WASHINGTON'S OFFICE

FACULTY AND CURRICULUM

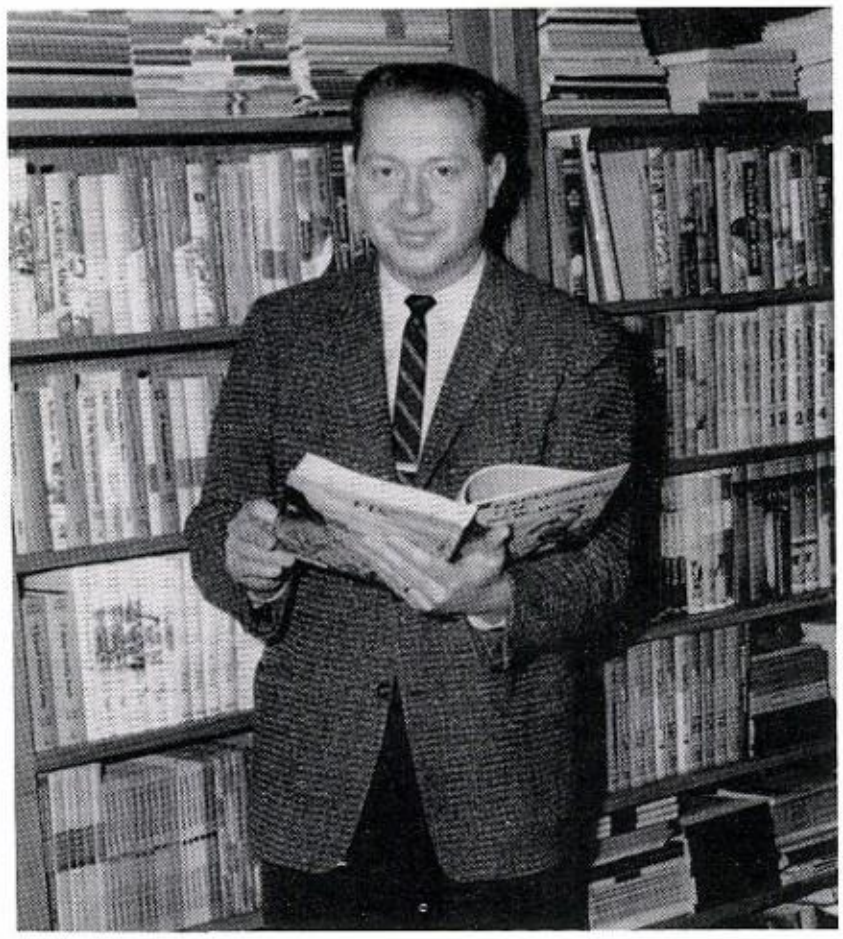


As the men and events in our past guide our future, so do the administration and faculty at James Wood direct the years of our life in school.

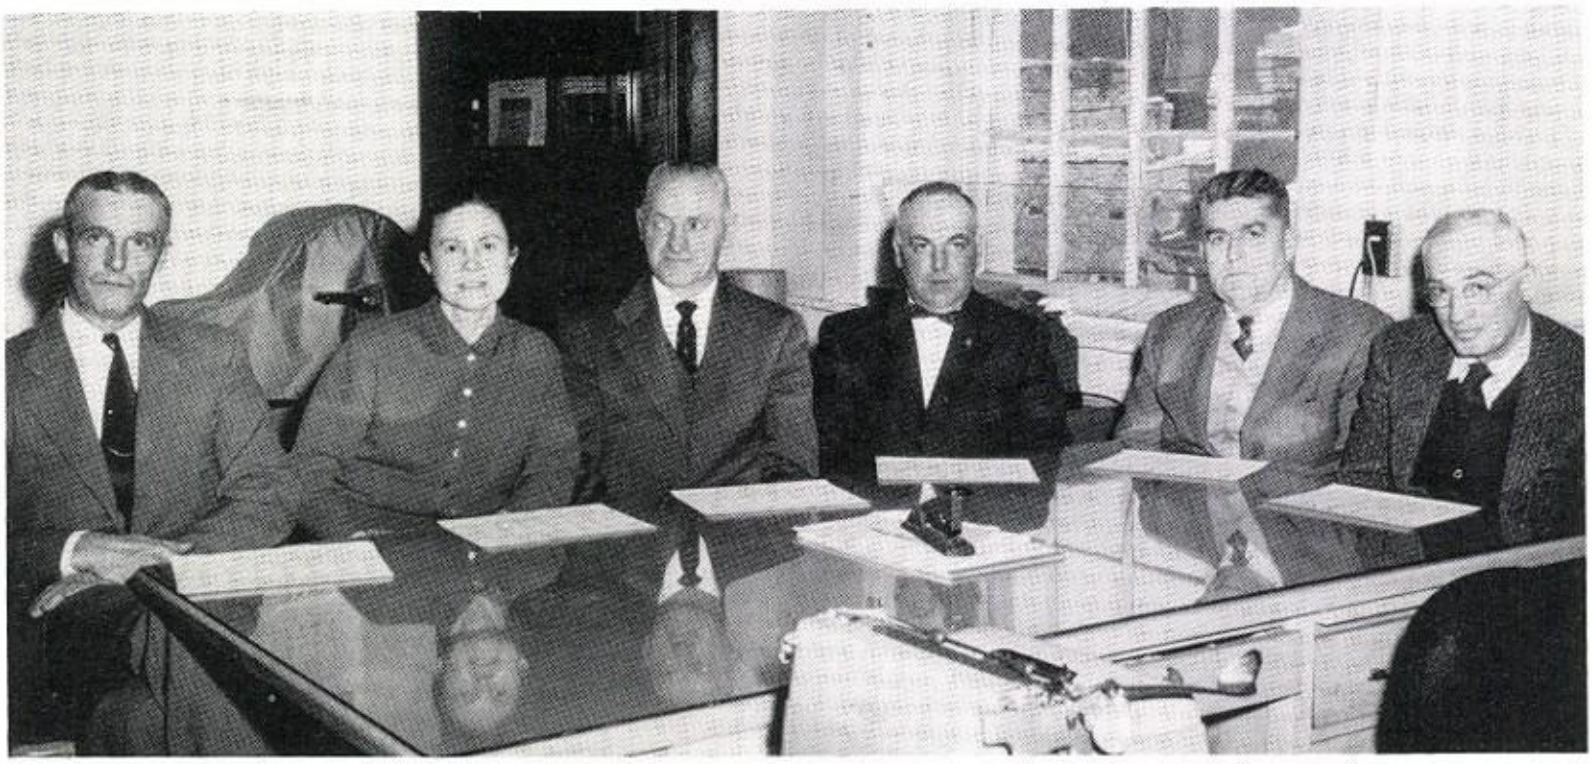
ADMINISTRATORS AND SCHOOL EXECUTIVES . . .



MR. ROBERT E. AYLOR, the Superintendent of Frederick County Schools, is well-known among the teachers and students for the part he has played in the program of the county throughout the years. He visits our schools frequently to meet with the school administration, gives advice, and helps in any other way possible. To discuss classroom policies and ways for improvement, he meets with the members of the faculty. He is also in charge of transportation and maintenance.



MR. MELTON WRIGHT, who is the Director of Instruction for Frederick County Schools, has his office in our school. By having his office at James Wood it is convenient for him to study the school situation and make changes to improve it. He observes the teachers and students in their classrooms and offers help in their instruction.



The School Board offers guidance and direction to the administration and operation of schools throughout Frederick County. The Board Members discuss ways and means of operating schools and establishing school policies during their monthly meetings.

The employment of all school personnel and handling of all business matters in connection with the functioning of our schools, is under the direction of the School Board.

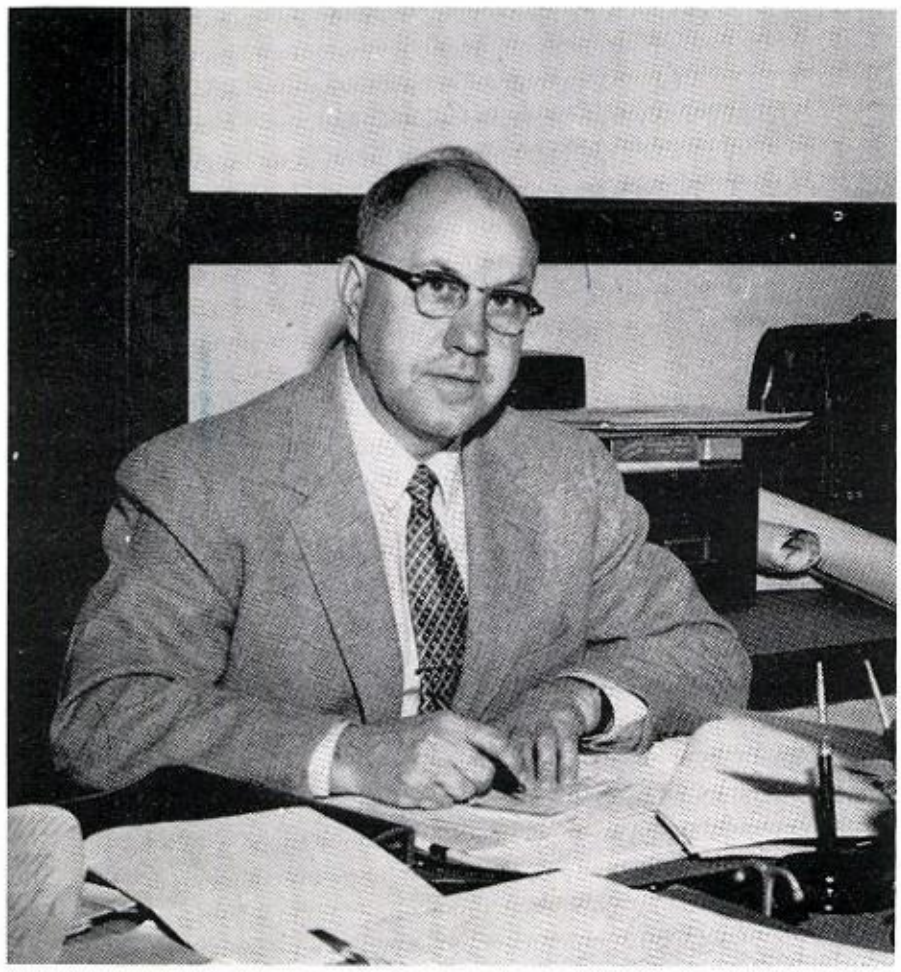
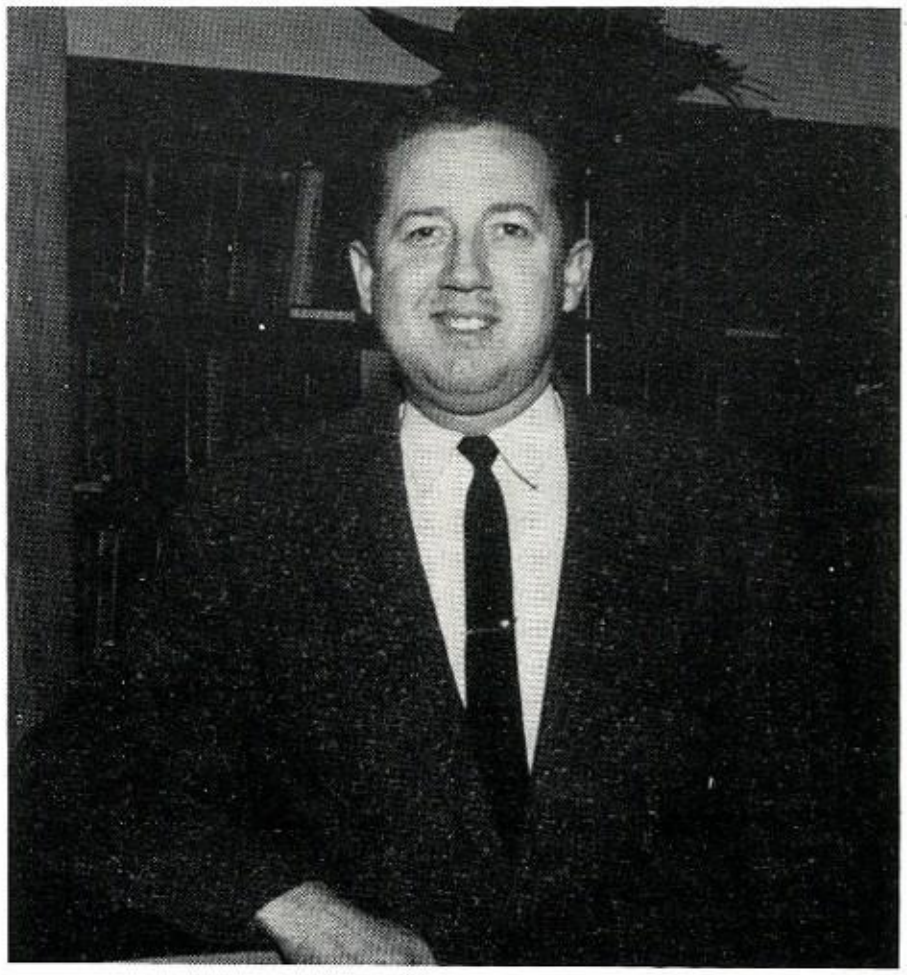
PROVIDE LEADERSHIP FOR COUNTY SCHOOLS



MR. JAMES C. GORDON'S personality needs no introduction to James Wood students. The entire student body is greeted by his voice every morning as he makes the announcements over the public address system. He participates in many of our school activities such as co-sponsoring the BETA Club here at James Wood. Mr. Gordon encourages school spirit when he cheers from the bleachers at our games.

Our principal offers advice and extends a friendly, helping hand wherever it is needed. By being so interested in making our school the very best, he naturally creates the same enthusiasm among the members of the faculty and student body.

MR. MELVIN D. FAWCETT, the assistant principal, is another well-known person frequently seen in our halls. As his title implies, he takes over the duties of our principal in his absence. Besides this, he issues absentee cards and teaches social studies. He also takes care of locker assignments of students entering James Wood. It is Mr. Fawcett's responsibility to collect teachers' monthly reports. In spite of all these responsibilities, Mr. Fawcett is always willing to help in any way he can.



MISS LUCY PAINTER, standing, is the school secretary. Besides keeping all financial records for the school, she performs such secretarial duties as typing letters, using the adding machine, answering the telephone, operating the mimeograph machine and taking dictation. Through her co-operation and understanding, confusion and work is lessened in our school.

MISS JEAN WINANS, seated, is the part-time secretary employed in the school office. She has the typical responsibilities of a secretary. From this Jean is gaining experience and preparing for her future career in business.

GUIDANCE TOWARDS THE FUTURE

Mr. George H. Turner, Jr.
Madison College
Shenandoah Conservatory of Music
Degree — B. Music Education

Mr. James V. Hutton, Jr.
University of Virginia
Degree — B.S. Education

We are endeavoring to implement the above philosophy in eight broad areas. They are:

I. Official Records

Official records are kept in order to present as complete a picture of the individual as possible.

II. Counseling Services

Counseling involves assistance to individuals and groups concerned with educational and vocational needs and personal social adjustment.

III. Vocational and Educational Services

These services are available to help individuals understand facts relating to educational institutions and vocational opportunities.

IV. Test Services

Test services include individual and group test administration and interpretation with statistical studies designed to indicate individual and group strengths and weaknesses.

V. Referral Services

When the guidance department personnel are unable to help solve some individual problems that develop, referrals are made to specialists.

VI. Related Services

An inter-exchange of ideas with administrators, supervisors, teachers, parents, and patrons designed to promote better understanding of the individuals involved.

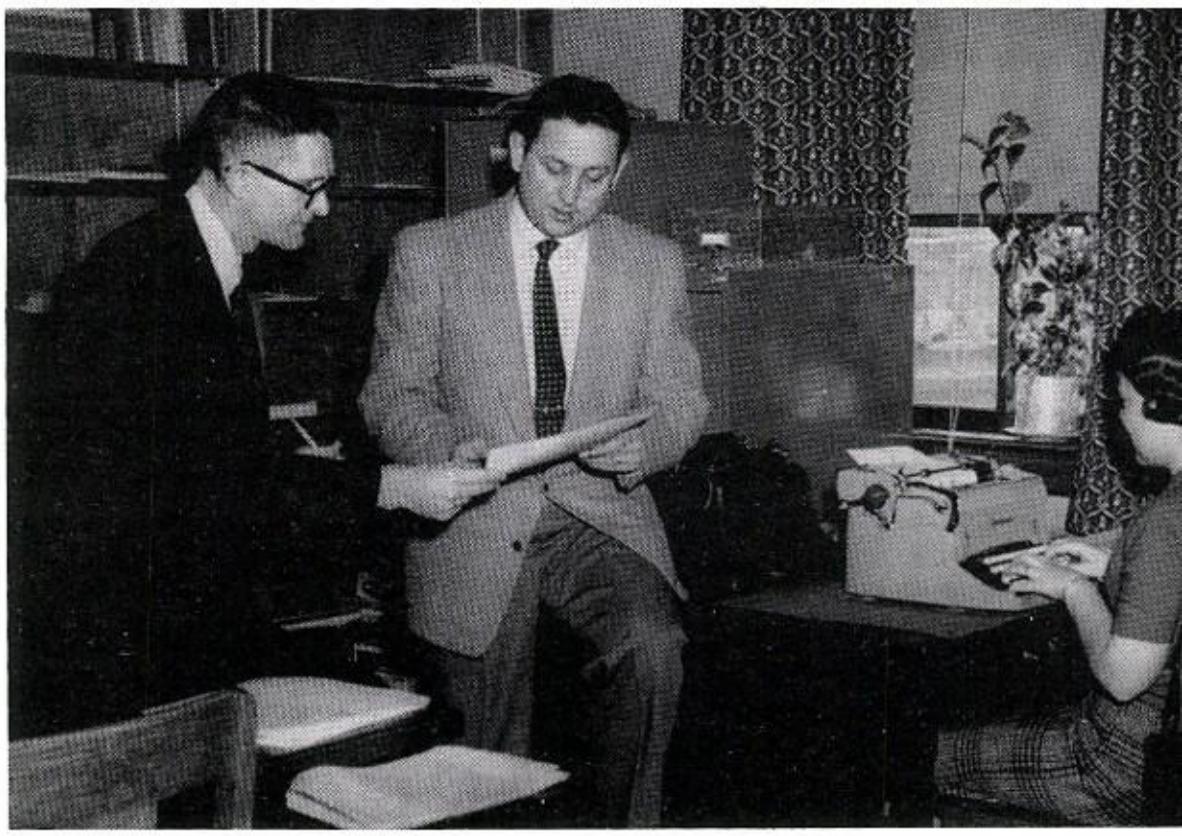
VII. Follow-Up Services

An attempt is being made to determine the disposition of the graduates of James Wood High School. We are interested in what they are doing, where and for whom they are working.

VIII. Evaluative Services

We are constantly revising, revitalizing, and reinforcing our plans, materials, and findings, in order to best serve the needs of all members of the Frederick County School Community.

Guidance services, as applied to James Wood High School, should be thought of as organized activities designed to give systematic aid to pupils in solving their problems and in making adjustments to various situations which they must meet. These activities should assist each pupil in knowing himself as an individual and as a member of society, in making the most of his strengths and in correcting or compensating for weaknesses that interfere with his progress, in learning about occupations so that he may intelligently plan and prepare, in whole or in part, for a career, in learning about educational opportunities available to him, and in discovering and developing creative and leisure interests.



Mr. Hutton and Mr. Turner are going over a student's aptitude test as Miss Patch types the results on the permanent record.

Art at James Wood High School is offered so that a student may develop his own creative ability, and will be able to make use of this during his leisure time. Many students have taken art, and through their training have been able to keep the school more attractive by making interesting posters concerning activities of clubs, assembly and plays.

Since all students must have five credits in English in order to graduate from high school, the English Department is the largest at James Wood.

Training in speaking, reading, writing, listening, and thinking are the goals of the department.

It is the hope of the English Department that it is making a significant contribution to the education and welfare of every student at James Wood High School.

The Social Studies course at James Wood High School consists of many units of instruction.

Various methods of instruction are used to make the classes interesting; among them being the lecture, class discussion, question and answer, research papers, and debates.

Newspapers, magazines, films, film strips, slides and maps are some of the supplementary materials used in the classroom.

The primary purpose of the Social Studies course is to develop better citizenship and to increase the students knowledge of history, government, and geography.

Mr. Smallridge points out the Districts of Voters in Virginia.

The teachers in the Science Department are greatly concerned with the promotion of pupil interest in the many fields of science. These students try a scientific experiment while Mrs. Smallridge, Mrs. Conner and Mr. York look on.

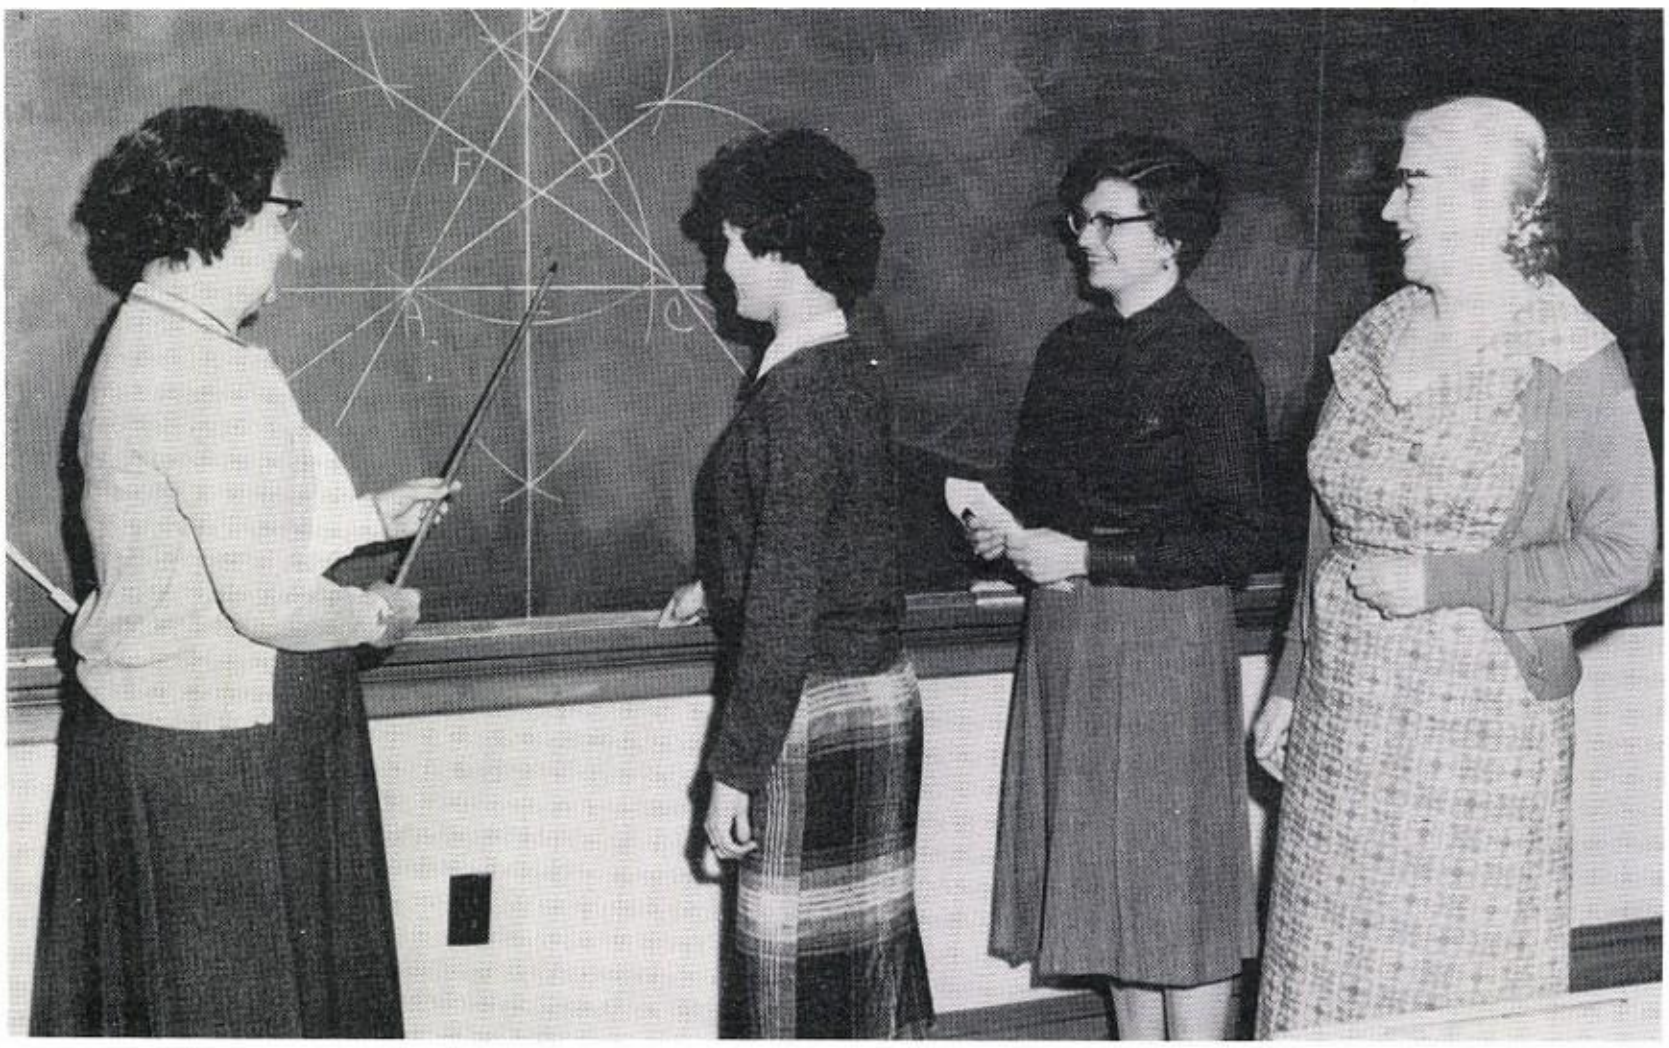
BY STUDYING FIGURES AND FORMULAS

Mrs. Mary S. Woore
Randolph-Macon Women's College
Degree — A.B.

The Mathematics Department has two main objectives — teaching college preparatory mathematics, elementary and intermediate algebra, plane geometry, solid geometry, and trigonometry. Subjects are designed to prepare students for mathematic courses in a college or university.



Mrs. Woore not only has startled her students; even Miss Cather and Mrs. Saunders are in doubt!

STUDENTS ARE PREPARED FOR LIFE AHEAD

Mrs. Bertha W. Hoagland

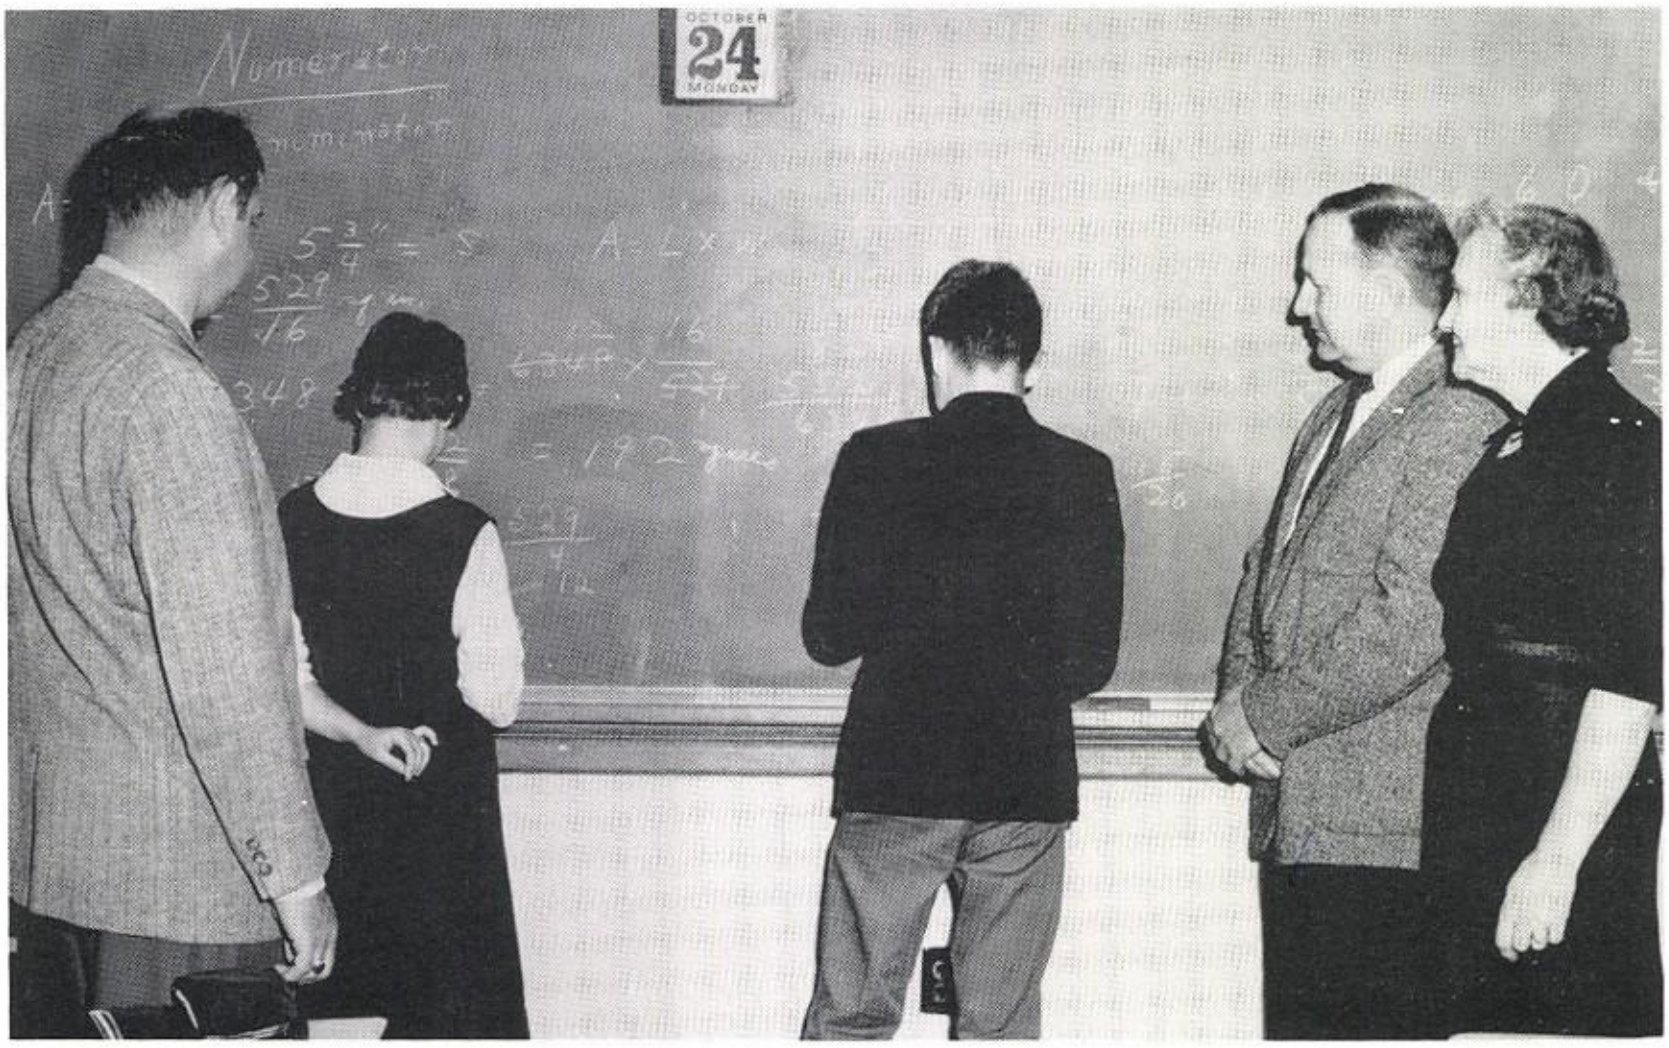
The basic mathematics course is considered to be a terminal subject, for those students who will not take any more mathematics, and as a foundation for business arithmetic.

Again, this year the Mathematics Department sponsored the Mathematics Club for advanced students.



Mrs. Hoagland, Mr. Harper, and Mr. Macaughtry look on as these students try solving the problems they were given.

Mr. Robert B. Harper

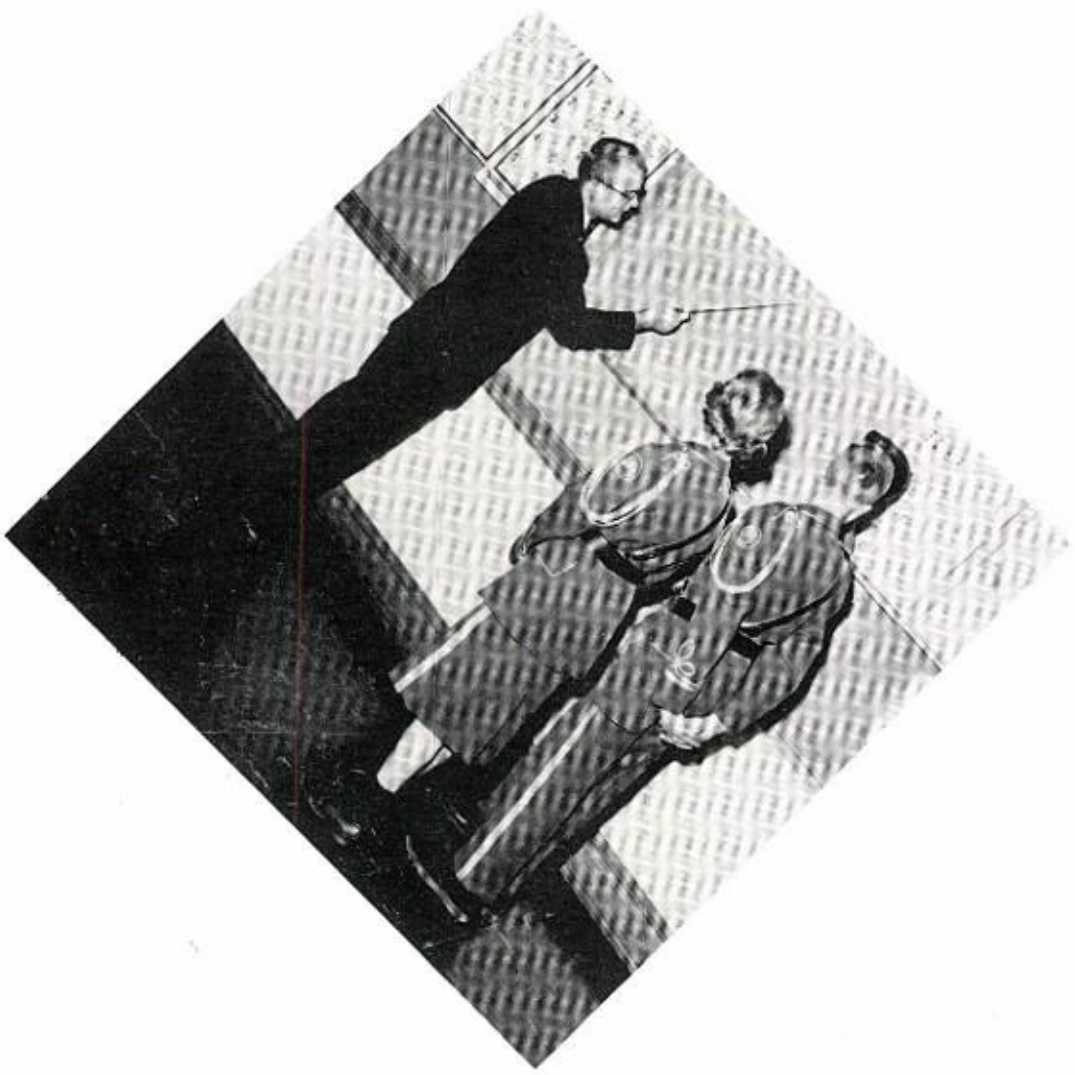
MUSIC MAKES THE WORLD GO 'ROUND

Miss Elizabeth Joanne Beazley
Westminister Choir College
Degree — Bachelor of Music

Miss Beazley gives special instructions.



Mr. Conner shows that the basis for music is the knowledge of notes.

Music is everyone's language. When students play or sing a song, probably they are unable to tell the nationality, the color, the religion, or the politics of the man who wrote it. Music is a thing of beauty, which extends into every land and nation. Music is universal.

Music is all encompassing. It knocks at the door of each life. Students find in it satisfaction . . . joy . . . sorrow . . . comfort . . . every emotion that lives within the human soul. Music is a meaningful part of life itself.

Mr. Raymond E. Conner
Shenandoah
Degree — B.M.E.

TOMORROWS' DREAM HOMES TAKE SHAPE

Miss Katherine Watson
William and Mary
Degree — B.S.

Mrs. Mary K. Humphries
Madison College

Mrs. Ruth B. Sutphin
Madison College
Degree — B.S.

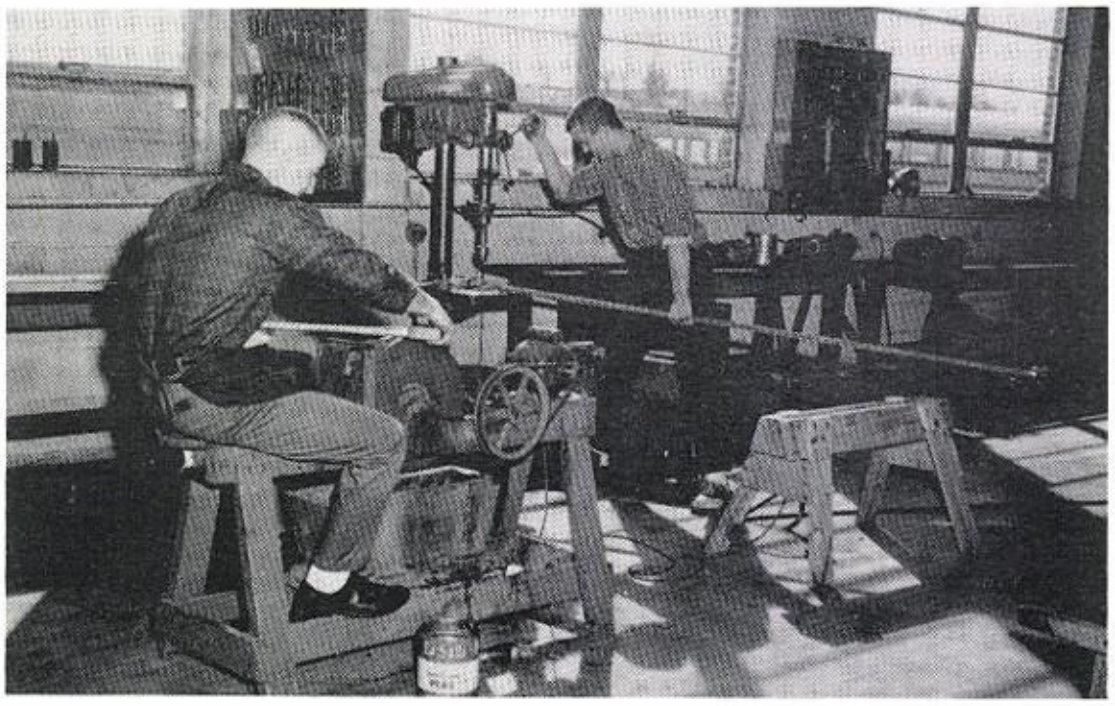
The objectives of educational activities in the home-making department include (a) development of attitudes, appreciation and ways of living with others that give dignity and importance to each person and (b) the development of abilities and skills that help in solving problems in all areas of home and family living.

These areas include: (1) planning, preparing and serving food, (2) selecting, constructing, and caring for clothing, (3) selecting, using, and caring for household furnishings, (4) giving home care to the sick and aged family members, (5) guiding the growth and development of children, (6) developing and maintaining good health, (7) using money and material resources for family welfare, (8) and developing good relationships in family living.

The three Home Economics teachers are looking over the students assignments. They seem well satisified with the results.

STUDENTS ARE TRAINED FOR LATER OCCUPATIONS

Mr. James L. Givens
V.P.I., and University of Maryland
Degree — B.S., and M.S.



David Miller and Brady Ellis are obtaining skill in the use of tools.

The purpose of Vocational Education in Agriculture is to increase proficiency in farming on the part of those engaged in farming and of prospective farmers. To accomplish this objective the program of Vocational Agriculture at James Wood is divided into three groups— The in-school students, all day students; Young Farmers, those starting to farm; and The Adult Farmers, those established in farming.

Degree — B.S.

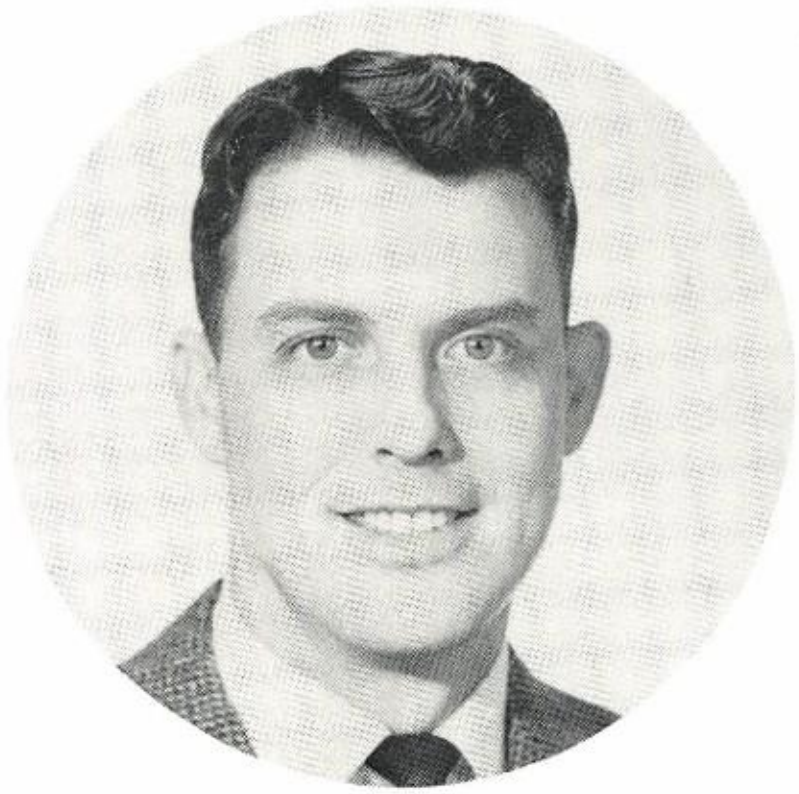
These boys hope to put to use the skills of machinery they have learned in fixing this tractor.

Mr. William Lee Whitacre
V.P.I.
Degree — B.S.

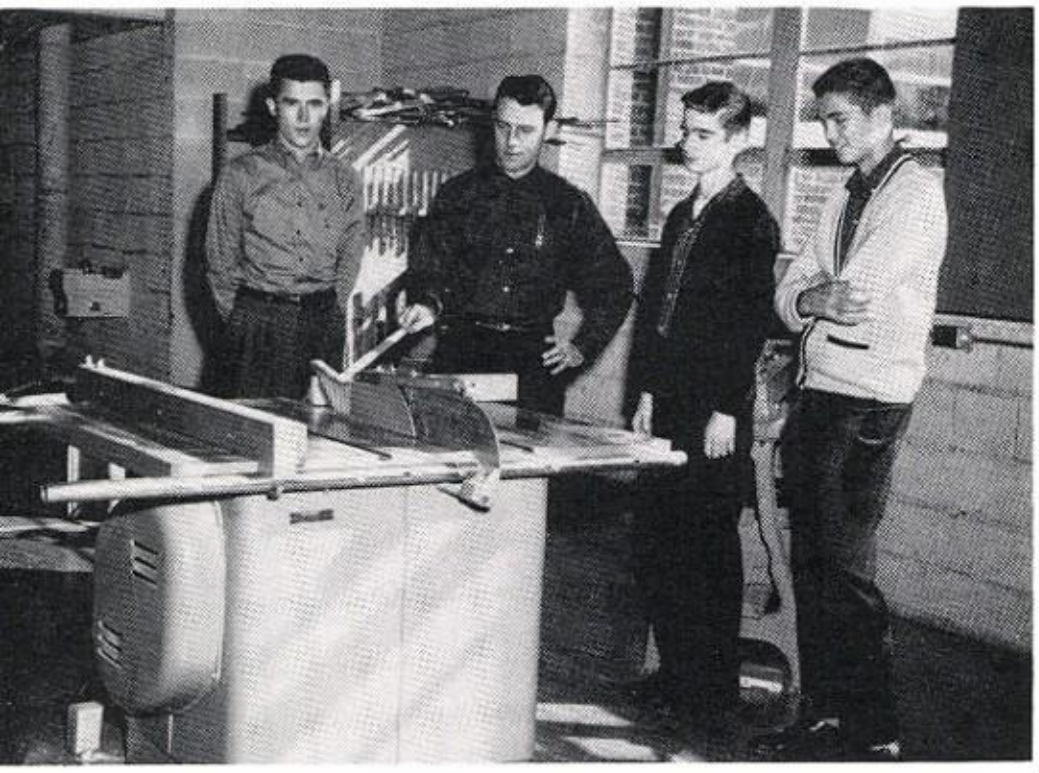
MUCH FURNITURE IS ADDED TO HOMES FROM INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The program of Industrial Arts at James Wood provides training in the areas of woodworking and mechanical drawing. Through mechanical drawing the boys learn a systematic way of putting their ideas for different projects on paper in the form of a working drawing, and to read and interpret correctly any drawing they might be required to use in the future.

Through woodworking, the students learn the proper use of hand tools and machines. Special attention is given to safety and maintenance of machines; also proper style, proportion and jointry of furniture.



Mr. John W. Duvall
Eastern Kentucky State
Degree — B.S., and M.A.



Mr. Duvall is instructing the boys on the operation of the saw, also showing them where precautions should be taken.

D.E. LEADS TO A FUTURE IN RETAILING

Distributive Education at James Wood celebrated its tenth anniversary with the largest enrollment in its history this year. A total of forty-three students are enrolled this year, with thirty-three students in the first year group, and ten in the second year group.

To be accepted, a student must — be a Junior or Senior, have approval of the Distributive Education Co-Ordinator, consent of their parents and have an over all "C" average scholastically.

In Distributive Education the student has an opportunity to work on a part time basis in different businesses in Winchester and Frederick County.

The Class-room instruction deals with different areas of Distribution, such as: selling, stock-keeping, merchandise information, advertising, store operation, marketing, and display.

General information is provided in General Business and Typing I. Specific skills are taught in Typing II, Shorthand I, Dictation and Transcription, Bookkeeping and Vocational Office Training.

SIGNS OF INCREASING ENROLLMENT

Mrs. Louise P. Zuckerman
Winchester Memorial Hospital
Registered Nurse

Girls in the junior and senior classes, who are planning on becoming nurses, work in the Clinic room various times during the day. They learn to take temperatures, administer First Aid, and make beds properly.

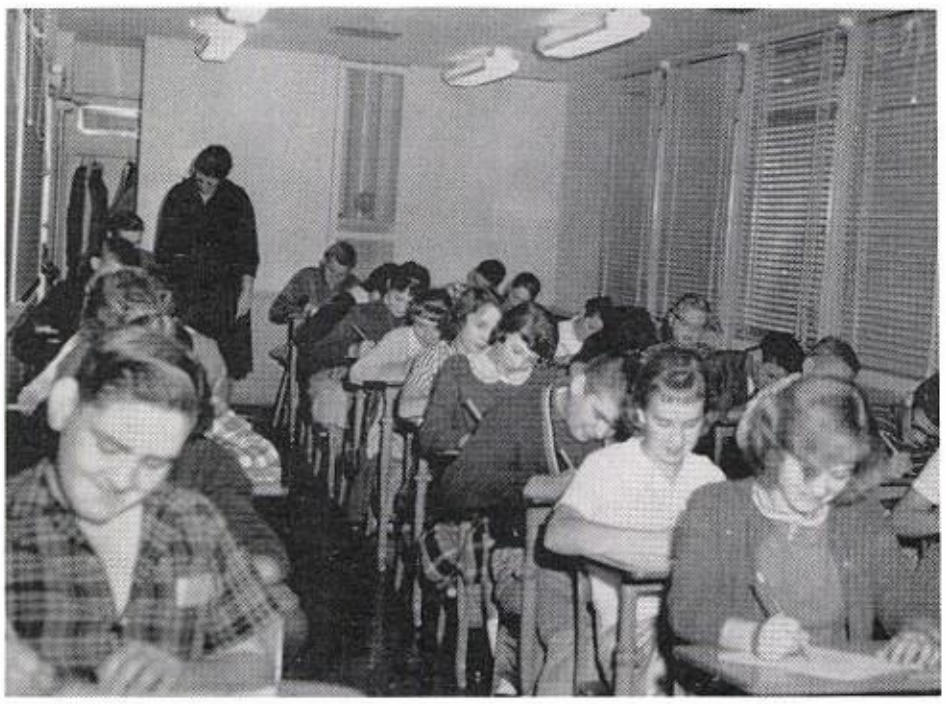
Miss Painter, Co-Sponsor of the Future Nurses' Club, is taking this student's temperature.

Mrs. Lake M. Surratt
Radford College
Degree — B.S.

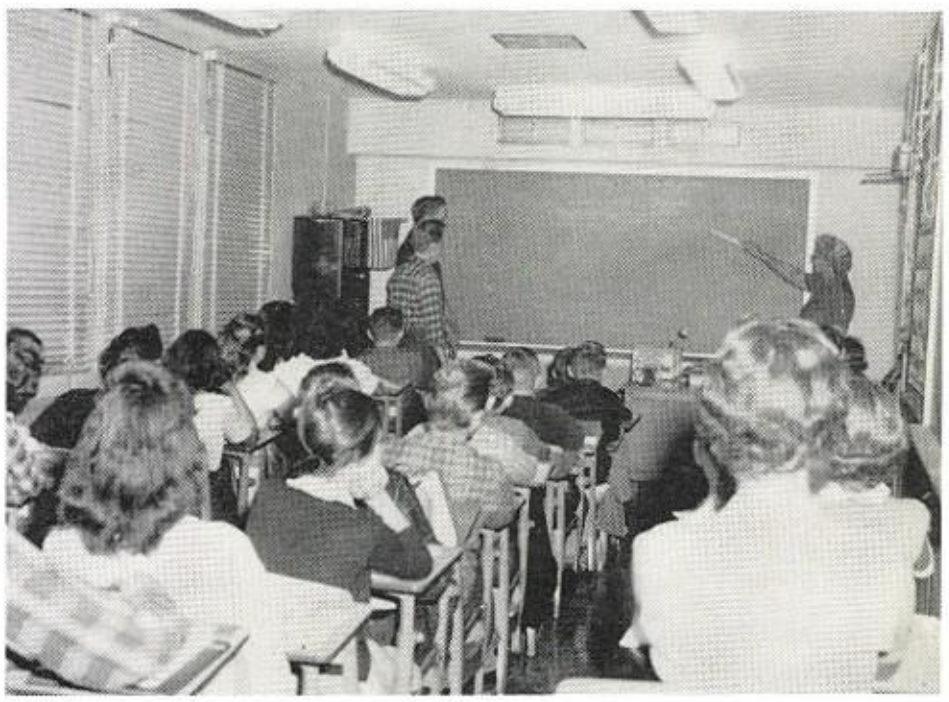
Mrs. Mae F. Brown
Fairmont Business College
Shepherd College
Degree — B.Ed.

Due to the over-crowded conditions of our school this year, it was necessary to obtain two large house trailers for the seventh grade groups.

They have adequate facilities with a quiet atmosphere away from the changing of classes and confusion.



Mrs. Surratt is assisting several of her seventh grade students with some book work.



The students look on as Mrs. Brown explains the correct way of making an outline.

Mr. Earl Slonaker

Mr. Jesse Burner
Custodian and Bus Driver

The cafeteria staff has the responsibility of preparing well-balanced meals for over 1,300 students. Through this program, under the direction of Mrs. Winnie Pingley, the cafeteria is operated on a smooth and efficient basis.

BEHIND THE SCENES

BUS DRIVERS — Row One: W. Racey, R. Boyce, H. Boyce, F. Rickard, L. LeMarr, V. Rickard. Row Two: Z. Haines, C. Mauzy, R. Wilfong, L. Slonaker, R. Hoake, Jr., L. Settle, D. McIntire, J. Reynolds.

These reliable persons are responsible for transporting the students to and from school each day. Each driver is assigned a specific route for which he is responsible for the safety of those students who board his bus.

One of the many duties of the bus drivers is to keep their vehicles in top mechanical shape.

SAFETY PATROL — Row One: S. Lofton, R. Link, R. Osearo, R. Carpenter, D. Owings. Row Two: B. Elliott, E. Neff, C. Ross, J. Carroll, D. Haines, J. Maphis.

The main purpose of the safety patrol is to assist the bus drivers in order to prevent accidents and maintain discipline on the buses.

Patrol members are assigned to each of the buses, but, since some smaller elementary schools are on our bus routes, not all safety patrol members are from James Wood.

The Safety Patrol members are definitely essential for the safety of the students riding the buses.

The Seniors have at last reached their goal.

Ahead lies the future — victories, problems, happiness and sorrow.

We realize that we must hold our knowledge dear, for in the coming days we will greatly need what we have learned here at James Wood.

'The walk to school is easy, but the walk after school proves more difficult."

SENIORS

SENIOR SPONSORS

The members of the Class of 1961, who attained the long awaited for stature — that of being seniors, realize that in our long journey we have had wonderful guidance and support from our two class sponsors. To both of you goes our everlasting thanks and a feeling of indebtedness that each of us will carry throughout our lives.

Mrs. Shirley R. Place — we would like you to know that we deeply appreciate your constant smile and helping hand. Without you, our plays and our prom would have found little enjoyment, and interest and our numerous other ventures would never have been achieved with such success.

Have a summer
Sandra, a real nice
& I'll see ya next year.
John Hodson

Mr. John D. Hodson, to you we express a feeling of deep gratitude for all the burdens you have shouldered and the problems you have solved. Each of us realize that, without you, we would have failed in many of our undertakings.

ADIEU
by
Marguerite Connelly

Dear James Wood,

As the time draws near,
When we must all depart
From these hallowed halls of learning:
We go with heavy heart
Into the world of greater deeds
And greater problems, too.
But courage also fills our hearts,
And we take our leave of you.
The many lessons taught us
And deeds we undertook,
Were things that never could be learned
From any common book.
You've steered us when we faltered
On the rocky paths of youth,
And showed us all the meaning
Of honesty and truth.
And even when we're old and gray,
And life has passed us by,
Our memories will linger on
Of days at James Wood High.
With this we bid one last farewell,
One filled with thanks and love.
Now we turn and ask dear God
For guidance — from above.
With him we'll meet life's hardships
With faith and hope and trust,
And yet remain,

Your faithful sons,
The Class of '61

WHO'S

In a class of two hundred and twenty-four students it is very difficult to choose the most outstanding personalities. In each of the ten categories there were a number of classmates who demonstrated notable traits and who were deemed worthy of special recognition.

TYPICAL SENIORS IN ACTION

Of course we don't stand here all the time, just during classes.

What do you mean Mr. Gordon is up-stairs???

Confusion!!!!????

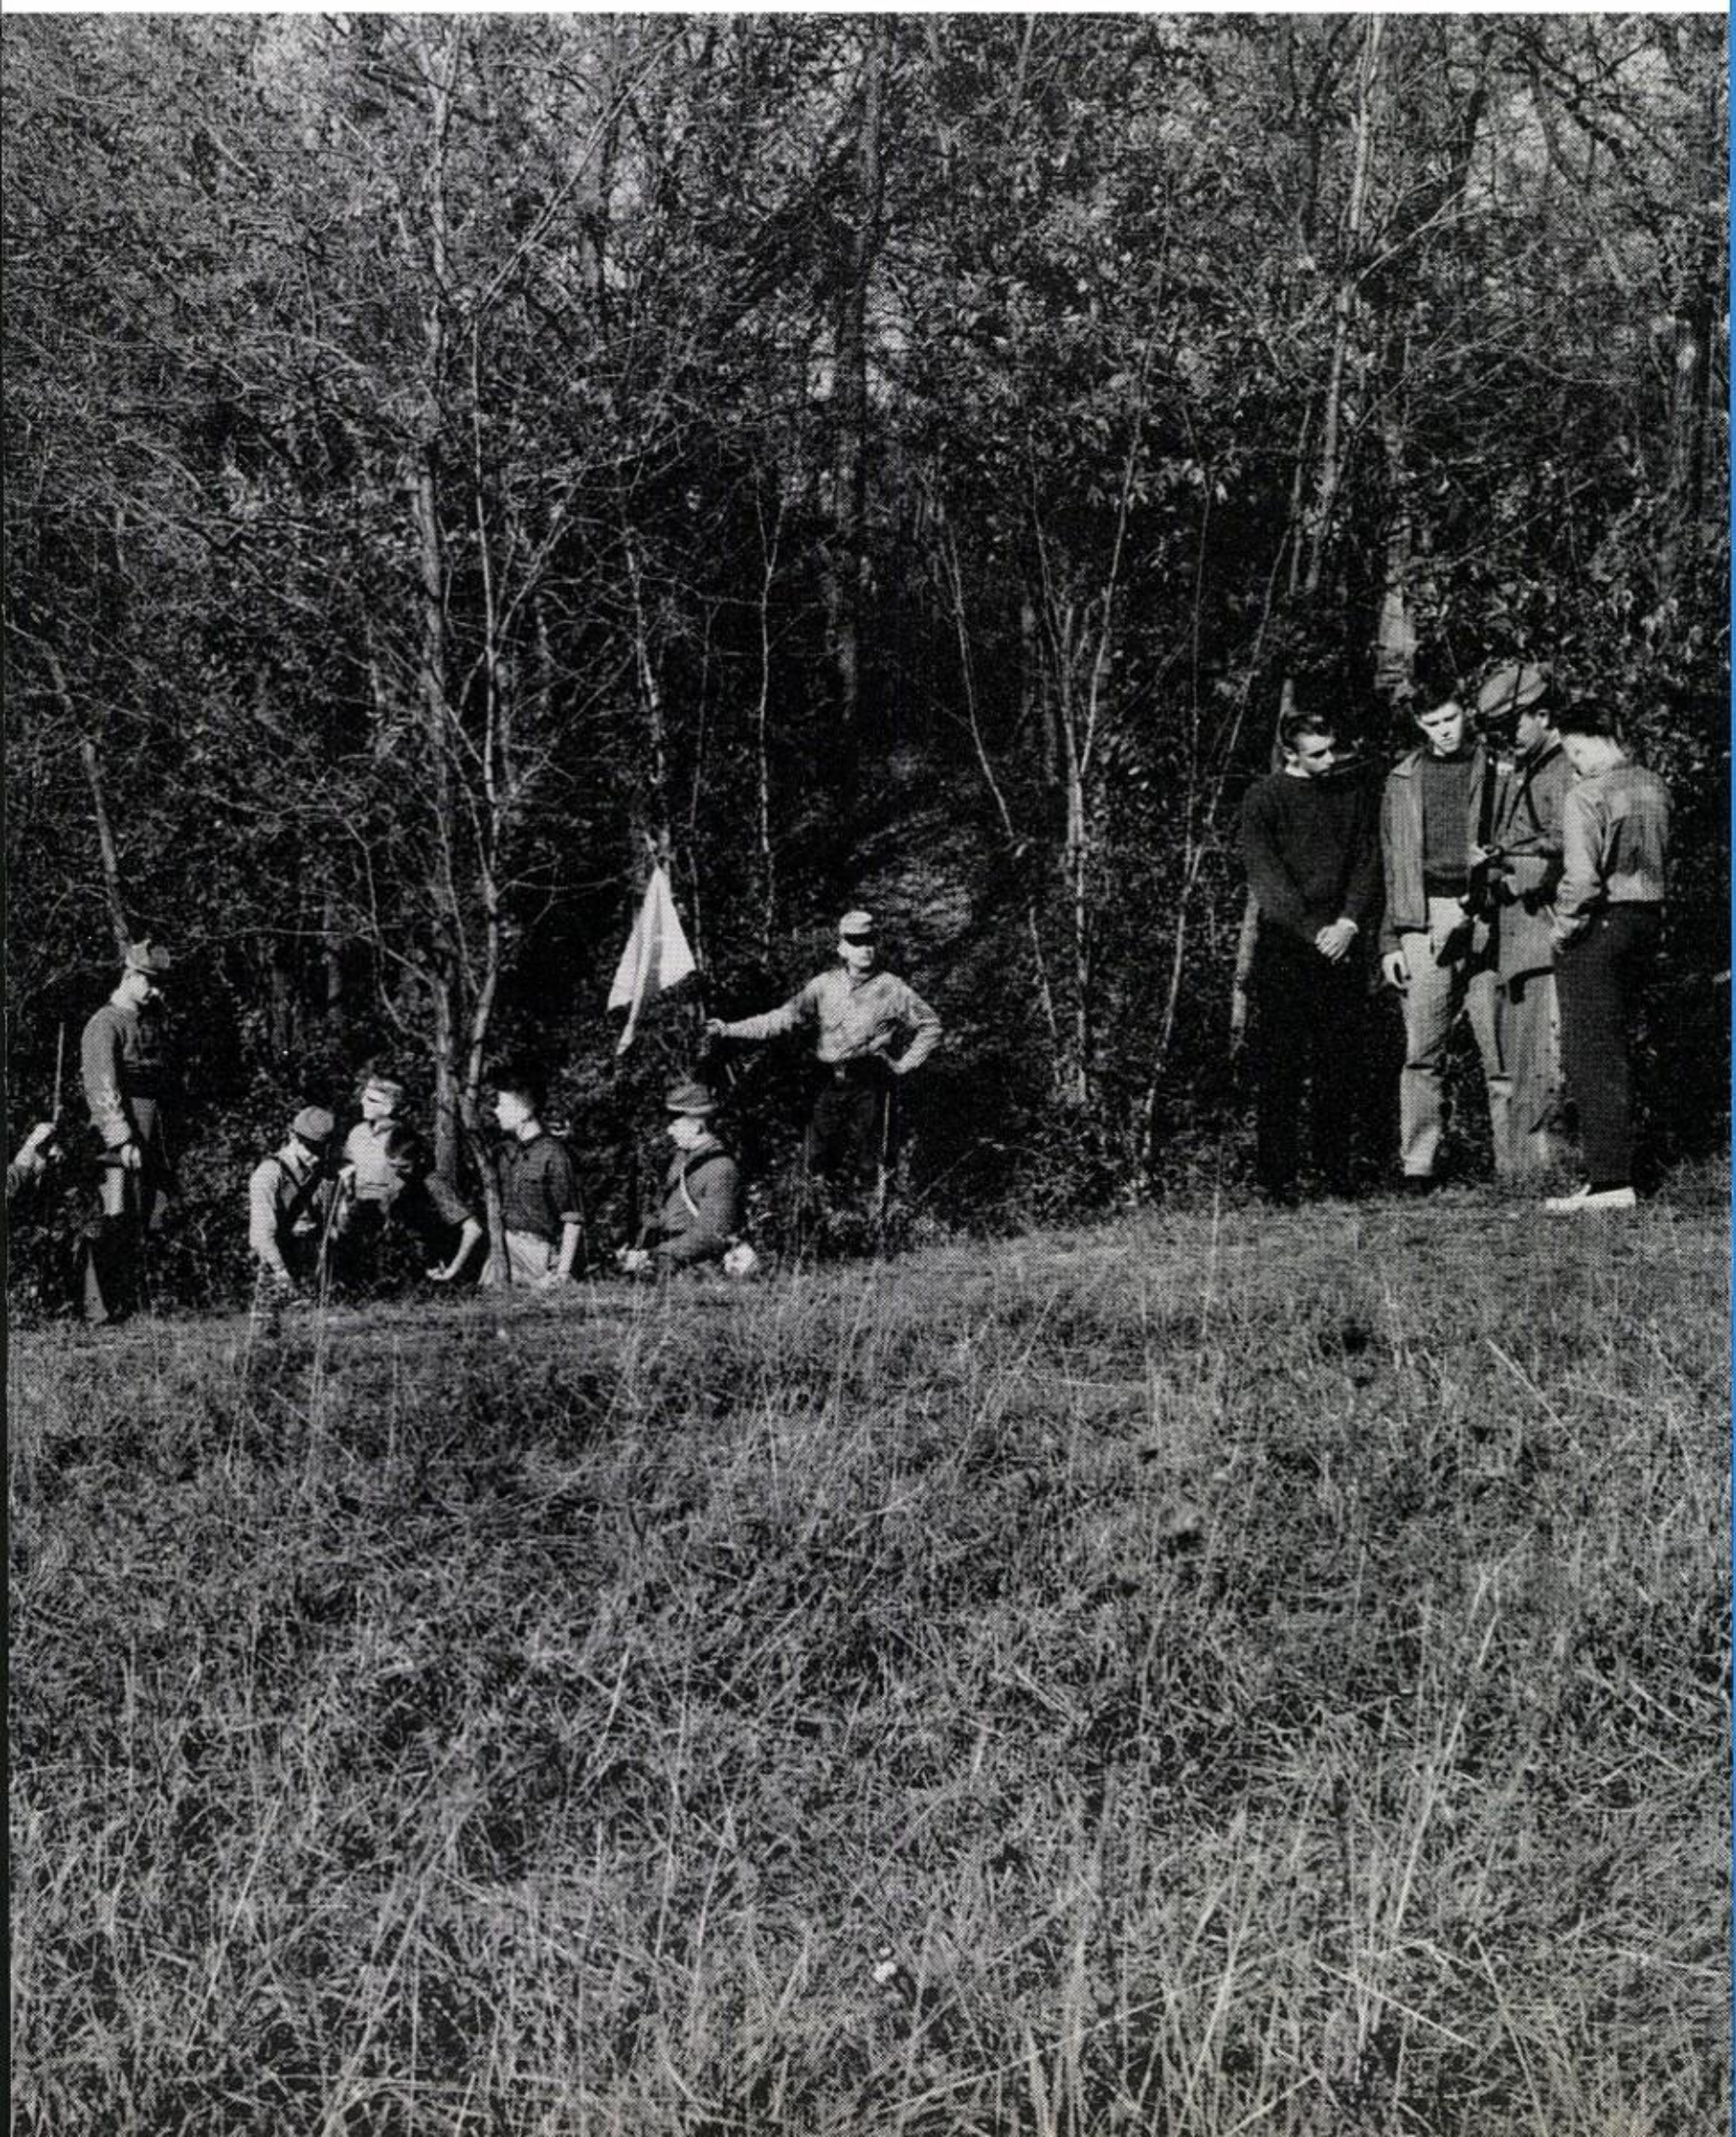
EXIT

The seniors are leaving James Wood and going into the vast outside world to meet with life.

Our dear school is left to the undergraduates, the seniors of tomorrow and the citizens of the future.

Each of us wish them good luck and hope they will be as happy among these surroundings as we have been. May they find the knowledge and experience that will make them the prominent citizens and good countrymen that our nation needs.

UNDERGRADUATES



FOR AND ABOUT UNDERGRADUATES

Just as time marches on, so it is with the undergraduates of James Wood.

Their paths are like stairsteps, at the top of which dwells graduation and the great world with its many opportunities and problems.

On the first step we find the seventh graders a little afraid, perhaps, of the great challenge that lies ahead. Yet confident that through the love of their parents and teachers, they will one day reach the top.

On the second step we see the eighth graders. Their minds and ideals are beginning to take shape. They have begun to work together and are thrilled with their first project, the holding of a school election during a national Presidential Election.

The freshmen stand on the third step — a little shaky, not too sure of themselves, yet firm in their belief of their teachers, in God and in their school. They realize that now they are truly in high school. They are really a part of the great multitude striving toward a successful future and a strong country.

The sophomores stand sure and straight on the fourth step. They are well on their way to the top and the realization of this fact gives them confidence and assurance. They work hard together as was witnessed in their successful sale of stationery this fall. Because they are able to combine their effort to such a great degree, we realize that theirs will be a truly outstanding class.

On the fifth step, and one of the last in our struggle, stand the juniors. Perhaps they are a little impatient as they are measured for their rings and as they rehearse for their play. For it seems as if this year has been ten years and they will never become seniors.

We, as the seniors would like to thank them for the lovely prom they have given us and would like to congratulate them on their great magazine sale.

To all the undergraduates we would like to say:

"Study hard, work as if each day were a challenge and store in your hearts the wonderful memories of the days which slip by so quickly."

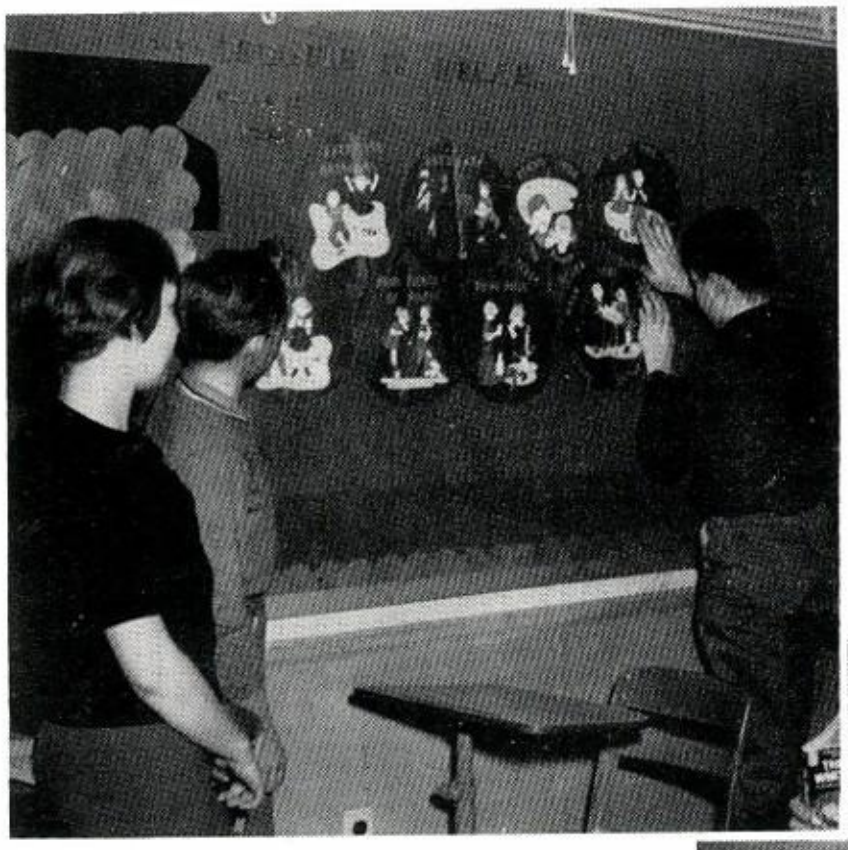
SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE ACTIVITIES



Good physical stability is stressed and discussed as the seventh graders prepare their new health project.

Miss Cunningham helps the eighth grade officers make plans for their future days and experiences at James Wood.

Eighth graders meet and enjoy the friendship of their new classmates at their first Get Acquainted Dance.

The youngest class in our school, strange and afraid, shy within the great mass of upperclassmen, eager to learn within the classroom — this is our seventh grade. This year they began their many new and varied activities amid the hum and buzz of a great school. One such activity was their health project in which they all worked together to stress physical, mental, and spiritual well-being.

James Wood's eighth grade for 1960-61 has proven to be the largest class ever to enter our high school. Yet with the fine help of their sponsors, Miss Cunningham and Mr. Carroll, the class has organized themselves to a fine degree and has found great success in this planned organization. As they attended their first Get Acquainted Dance in September they came to know and understand each other. Later in the year, they pooled their resources again and had a fine cupcake sale. We all feel that the class of '65 will, through the next four years, prove very successful and very praiseworthy.

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES

Our years at James Wood have taught us many things. We have grown socially, emotionally, mentally and spiritually. This growth has come not only from the teacher's textbooks and reading, it has come from learning to get along with one another and learning to work together. Through our clubs we have accomplished these goals and we hope to become better prepared to get along happily in our life.

The Student Co-operative Association, since it includes every student at James Wood, is chiefly a service organization, and strives for better cooperation between students and faculty. This past year the SCA successfully planned and carried out several worthwhile projects: the used-book store, the three get-acquainted parties, and the football concession stand. A new constitution was written and adopted, and undertook a big problem: to raise enough money to build a new concession stand and erect a section of concrete bleachers. With the help of all the students, these projects were completed. The outstanding event of the SCA year was the assembly in February with the eminent Civil War historian and author of the Major Mosby Tales, Mr. Virgil Carrington Jones, as the speaker.

PRESENTS - - -

Parents enjoy the hot coffee and donuts served in the school cafeteria during Parents Night.

One of the most active clubs at school, the S.C.A., sponsored such events this year as their gala Christmas Dance held in the school gym and a Parents' Night.

All parents were invited to attend this special night at which time the teachers spoke with each one and answered questions concerning their children's progress, attendance, etc. We feel that this has helped the teachers and students to obtain a deeper and better understanding of each other.

As our faculty explain their techniques of teaching, the parents listen attentively.

Christmas spirits were gay and full of fun as the S.C.A.'s dance added a bit of sparkle to the holiday season.

Interviewing, photography, layout and rechecking for accuracy are among the many tasks performed by the members of Journalism class.

The Staff has endeavored to make this year's paper the biggest and most entertaining one in the history of the Wood Post.

Cooperation of students and teachers has helped in attaining these objectives.

FINANCE AND TYPIST — Betty Heishman, Janet Ruckman, Gloria Rosenberger.

Beginning last summer, the yearbook staff was organized during several training workshops, which were held at the school. The members of the staff received training in the organizing and making of the yearbook. Several members of the staff attended the workshop at the George Washington Hotel, which was sponsored by the Inter-Collegiate Press. From this workshop they learned the proper construction and important points that make the book a better quality.

STAFF

SPORTS AND CURRICULUM — Jerry Parker, Susie Clemons, Peggy Sager, Judy Hewitt.

Through many long hours of work the staff, completed the largest yearbook in the history of James Wood. Working one hour each day during the school week, the staff completed what we believe to be the best book in the history of the school.

Over eight hundred books were sold, which was a new high in circulation.

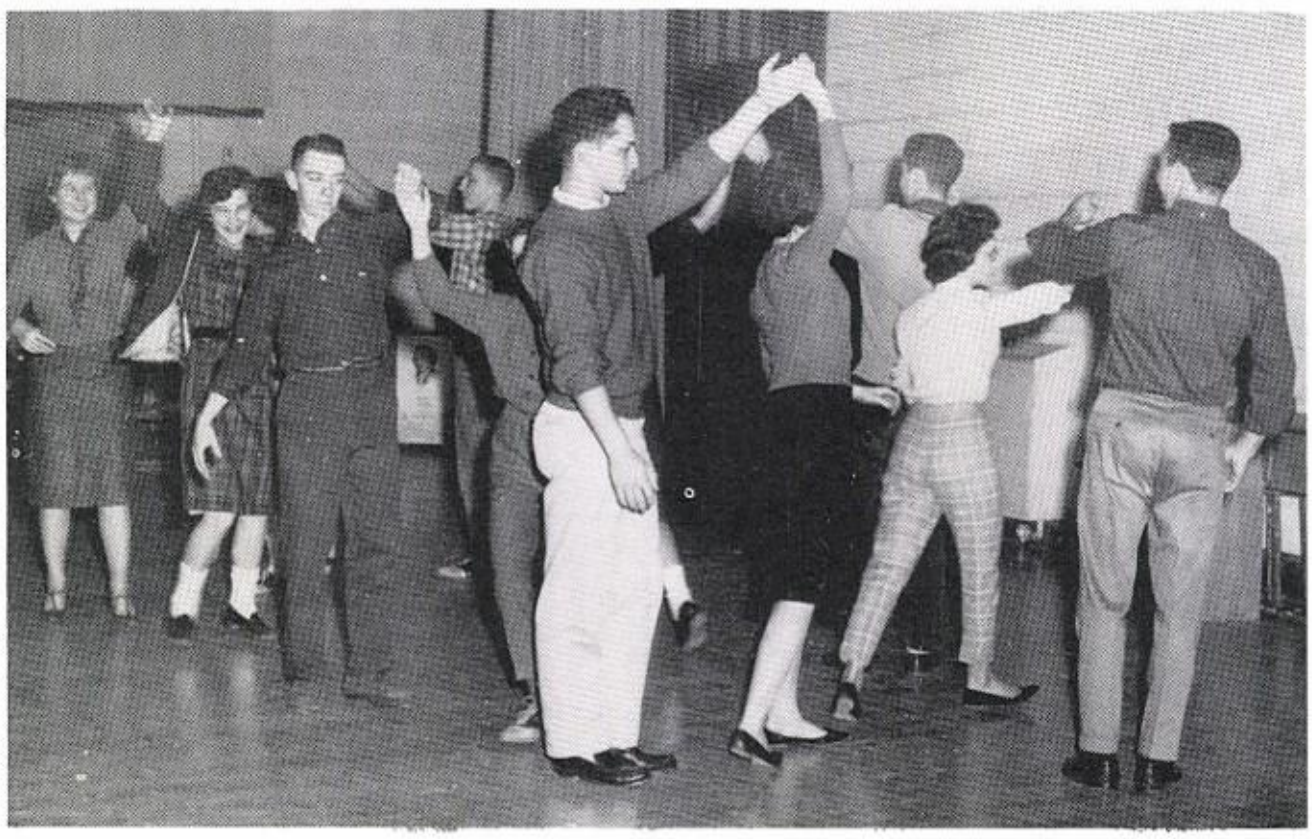
The members of the James Wood Woodbine Staff hope this year's edition of the yearbook will bring the school story to the students and better acquaint them with the school.

VARIETY IS THE SPICE OF LIFE

Costumes for the Variety Show are chosen, adjusted, and fitted.

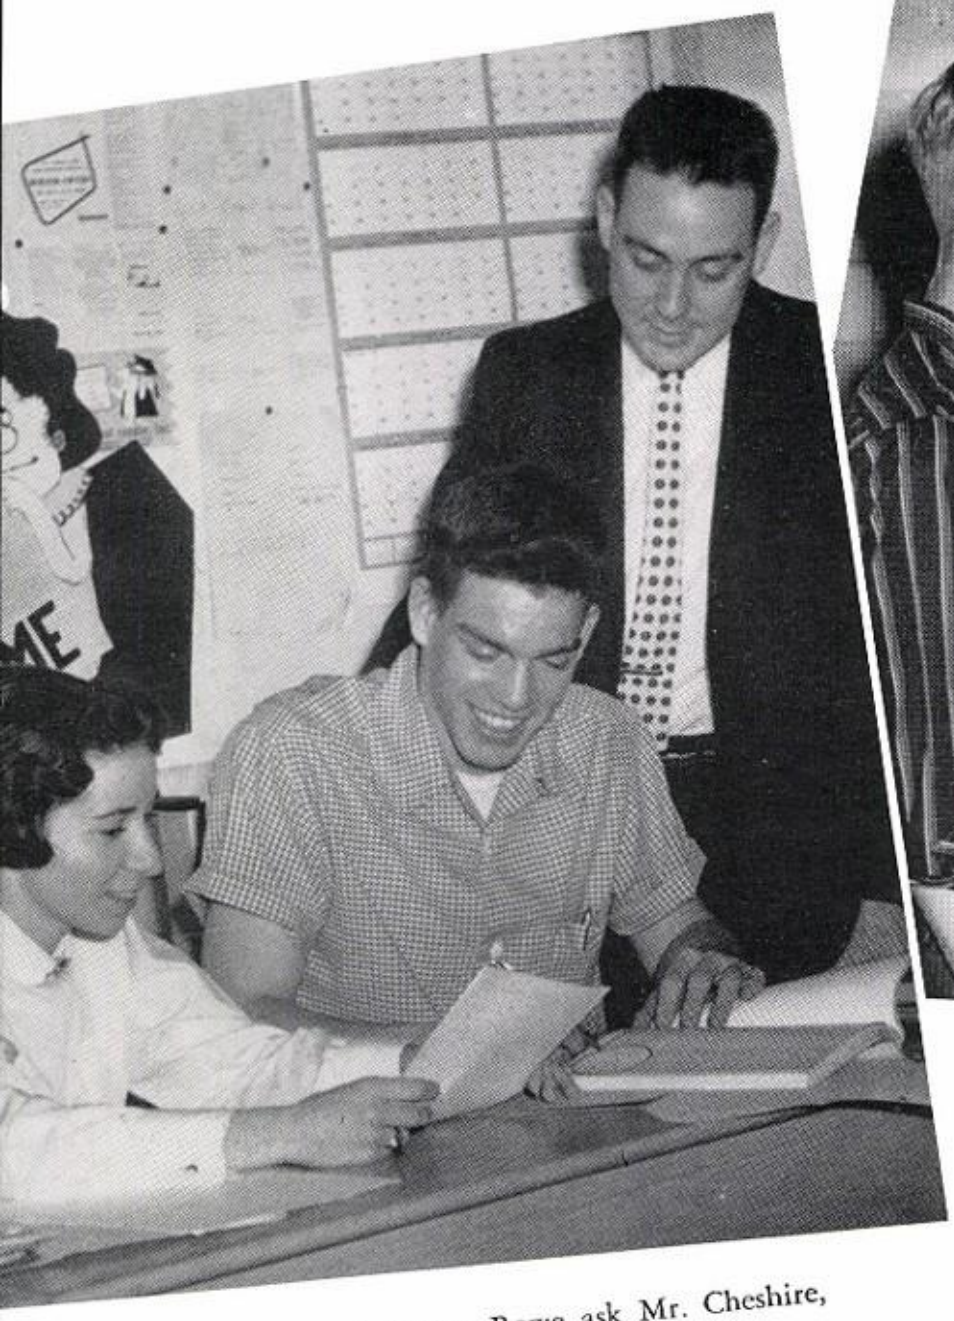
The line routine for the Variety Show rehearses with plenty of pep and rhythm.

Each year the James Wood Journalism staff writes, prints, and sell our school newspaper, "The Woodpost." This, in itself is a big job; but through careful planning and preparations the staff has also succeeded in putting on a great, old fashioned Variety Show. The show consisted of dancing such as the Charleston and the waltz, singing, and many types of typical old time entertainment.



"Smooth and easy" are the by-words for rehearsal of the waltz.

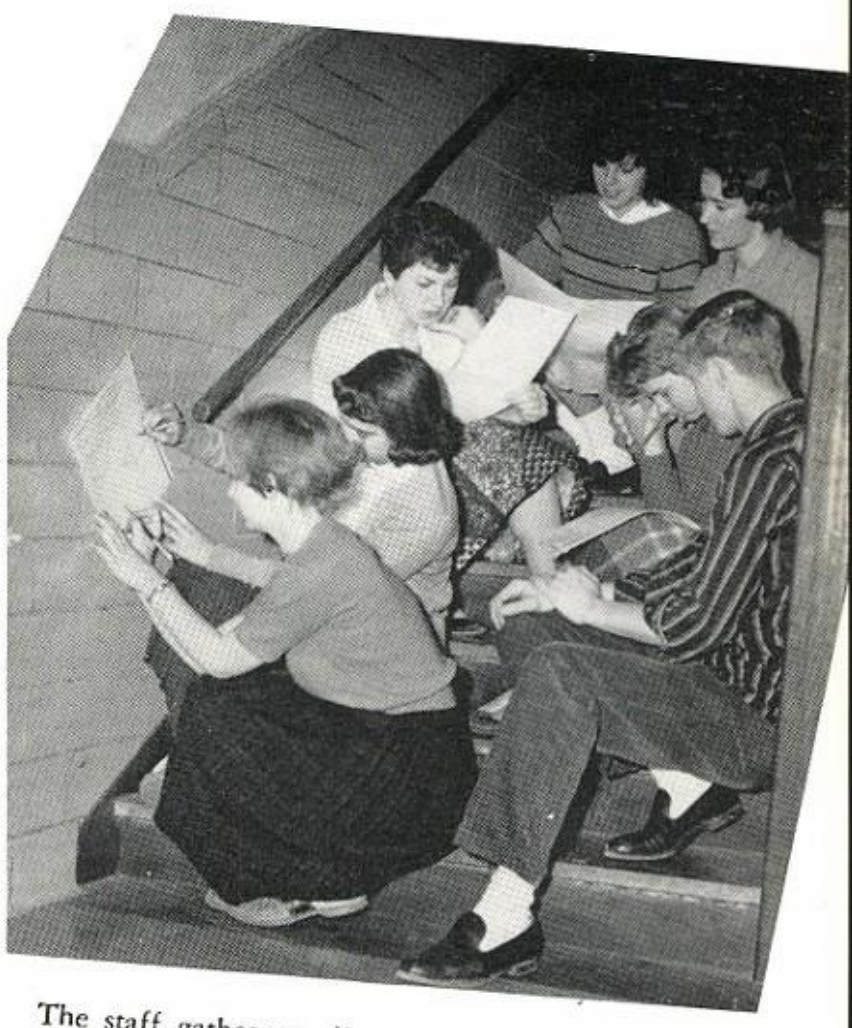
MEMORIES OF '61 . . . . .



Joyce Brannon and Arthur Rowe ask Mr. Cheshire, a CIT student, for advice on a senior page.

Susie Clemons and Jerry Parker, sports editors, discuss gridiron layouts with Mr. Manual.

Members of the Woodbine Staff find new ideas for their annual at the workshop sponsored by the Inter-Collegiate Press last Fall.



The staff gathers to discuss and compare layouts, captions, and headlines for their respective pages.

The purpose of the Beta Club is to promote the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership among high school students of America, to reward meritorious achievement, and to encourage and assist students to continue their education.

This year the Beta Club held their annual beauty contest November 17, 1960, thus raising the money to send the members to the Beta Convention.

On January 11, 1961, the school cafeteria was transformed into an attractive environment for the Beta Banquet and Initiation Ceremony. In March many of the members attended the annual State Beta Club convention held in Roanoke. This event climaxed the James Wood Beta activities for the year.

The winners of the dress contest, Virginia Young, second place; Kay Madagan, first place; and Betsy Phelps, third place; can't beliove that they have been selected for these honors.

Our annual Beta Club Beauty Contest was held on November 17. Seventy-two girls competed for the title of Miss James Wood and also for dress honors.

The winners were presented with such gifts as compacts, pocketbooks, jewelry, and a loving cup. Yet win or lose, each of the girls had a memorable and dazzling night which they will never forget.

As the seventy-two contestants assemble together, the stage is brilliant with the beauty and joy of youth.

BETA HIGHLIGHTS

The "Betas", their sponsors and guests all enjoy the fried chicken, mashed potatoes, peas, and ice cream which was part of their delicious dinner.

One of our new members, Danny Stotler, is pinned by the secretary, Gloria Rosenberger.

Each year James Wood's Beta Club, along with many such clubs all over Virginia, journey to the State Convention. This year, the convention was held in March at Roanoke in the Grand Hotel Roanoke. During the course of the convention, the members attended such activities as a talent show, various educational lectures, and many campaign activities, through which they elected a state President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

In January the club held their annual initiation banquet in the school cafeteria. During the night a big chicken dinner was held in honor of the new members who were recognized, initiated, and pinned.

The first night of the convention, all the members gathered to discuss the exciting events of the day.

All the "Betas" relax on the bus as they look forward to a wonderful weekend in Roanoke.

The purpose of the Library Club is to help create a quiet, peaceful and restful environment for the students and teachers who wish to use the library for browsing, study and research.

Some of the activities of the club members are:

1. The members become familiar with the books by shelving them according to fiction and non-fiction which includes the Dewey Decimal System.
2. Passes are checked for accuracy.
3. The Periodical room is ready at all times for reference materials.
4. The members also assist with the circulation of books. Through this the club members learn to appreciate good literature and relate to other students their knowledge concerning the placement of books and other materials found in the library.

LATIN

Students who comprise the membership of the Latin Club are enrolled in the first or second year of Latin. Membership is maintained throughout the student's high school career.

The two major purposes of the Latin Club are the social and cultural development of the members. Reading, pictures, film strips, and reports were presented periodically to enhance the members' background of information concerning Roman life in the past and present.

The climax of the year's activities was the Latin Banquet when the entire evening's activities transpired in a Roman atmosphere.

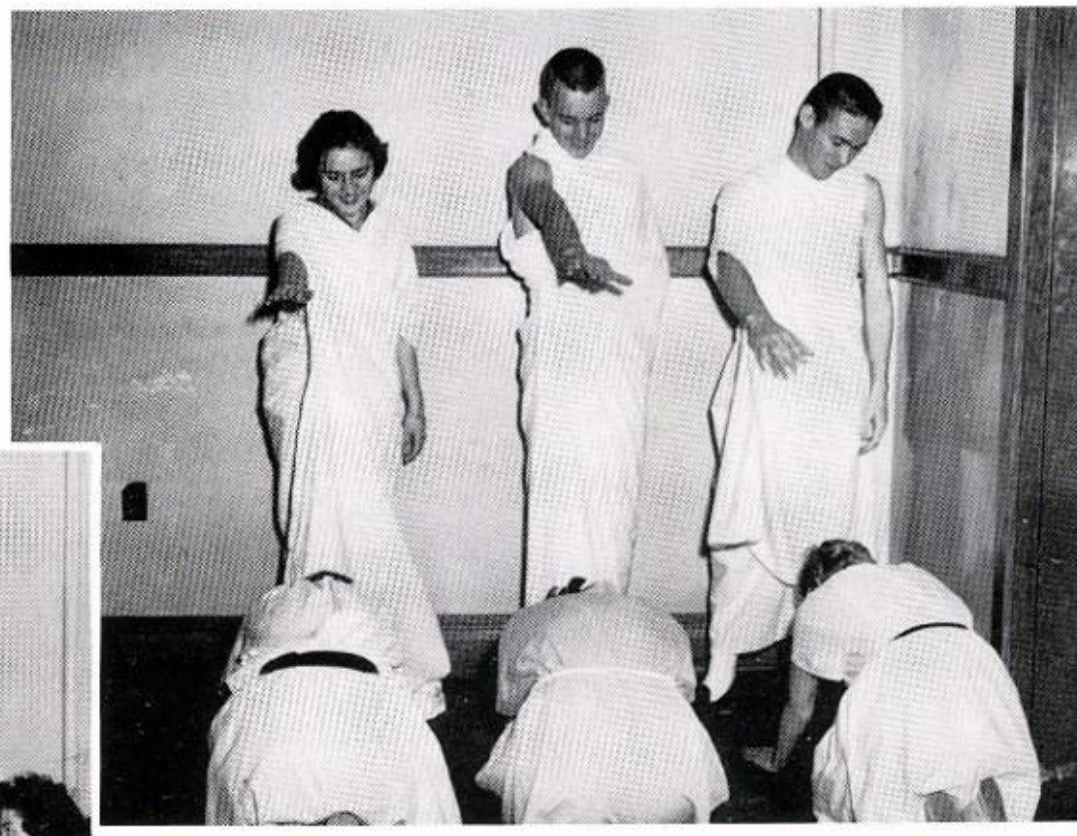
ROMAN CULTURE IS RELIVED

Earl Profitt and Mike Perry demonstrate true Roman combat techniques.

Maps of Rome, shields, swords, and such are part of these Latin student's projects.

Each year students taking Latin find knowledge not only of the language but also of the customs. They discover new and interesting things about the slaves, war and combat, eating habits and such. In this way the ancient Roman's cities, their life and their customs are brought closer to the hearts of our students.



Who said Lincoln freed the slaves?

 When the masters call the slaves must come!

HACEMOS UNA FIESTA . . . .

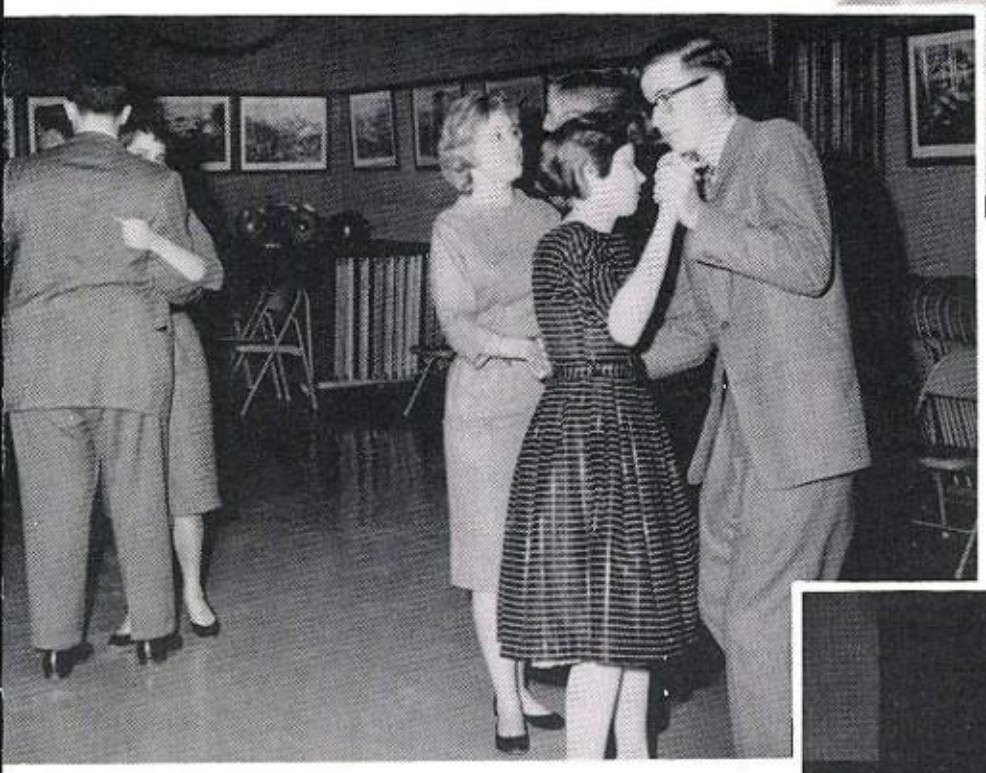
Spanish Club sponsor, Mrs. Elsie Hovermale, steals a taste of the turkey and concedes that it certainly is delicious.

There is much hustle and bustle in the kitchen as everyone lends a hand to the carving and serving of the turkey.

James Wood's Spanish Club, under the guiding hand of their sponsor, Mrs. Elsie Hovermale, found fun and excitement in a typical night of Spanish merriment. Everyone helped and the result was a delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings, followed by dancing and games.

The club also joined hands and sold hundreds of boxes of candy throughout the area in order to pay for their banquet.

The Spanish Club members and their guests are well satisfied with the meal.



After finishing the turkey and the dessert, the students swing into a slow dance rhythm.

Mrs. Hovermale passes out candy to the Spanish Club members as their money making project goes into action.

The club has been very active in the spiritual life of the school. It has been responsible for the "Thought for the Week," grace at lunch, and Chapel on Wednesdays, and also sends representatives to the Model General Assembly in Richmond.

Our sponsor this year, Miss Cather, has given us wonderful guidance, and for this we are greatly indebted.

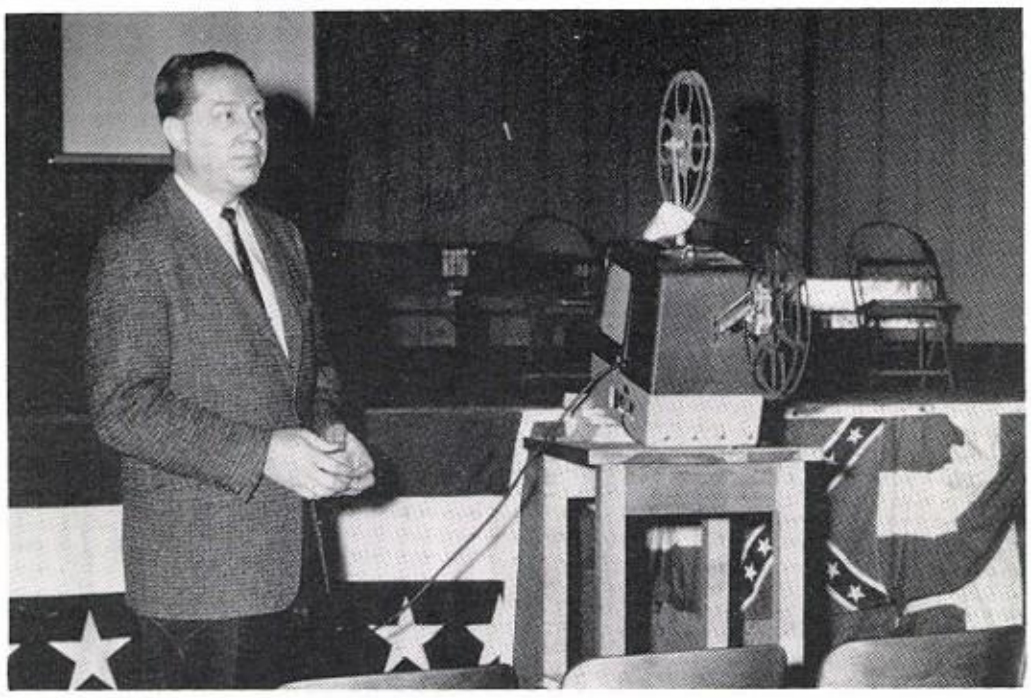
WE FOLLOW HIS FOOTSTEPS

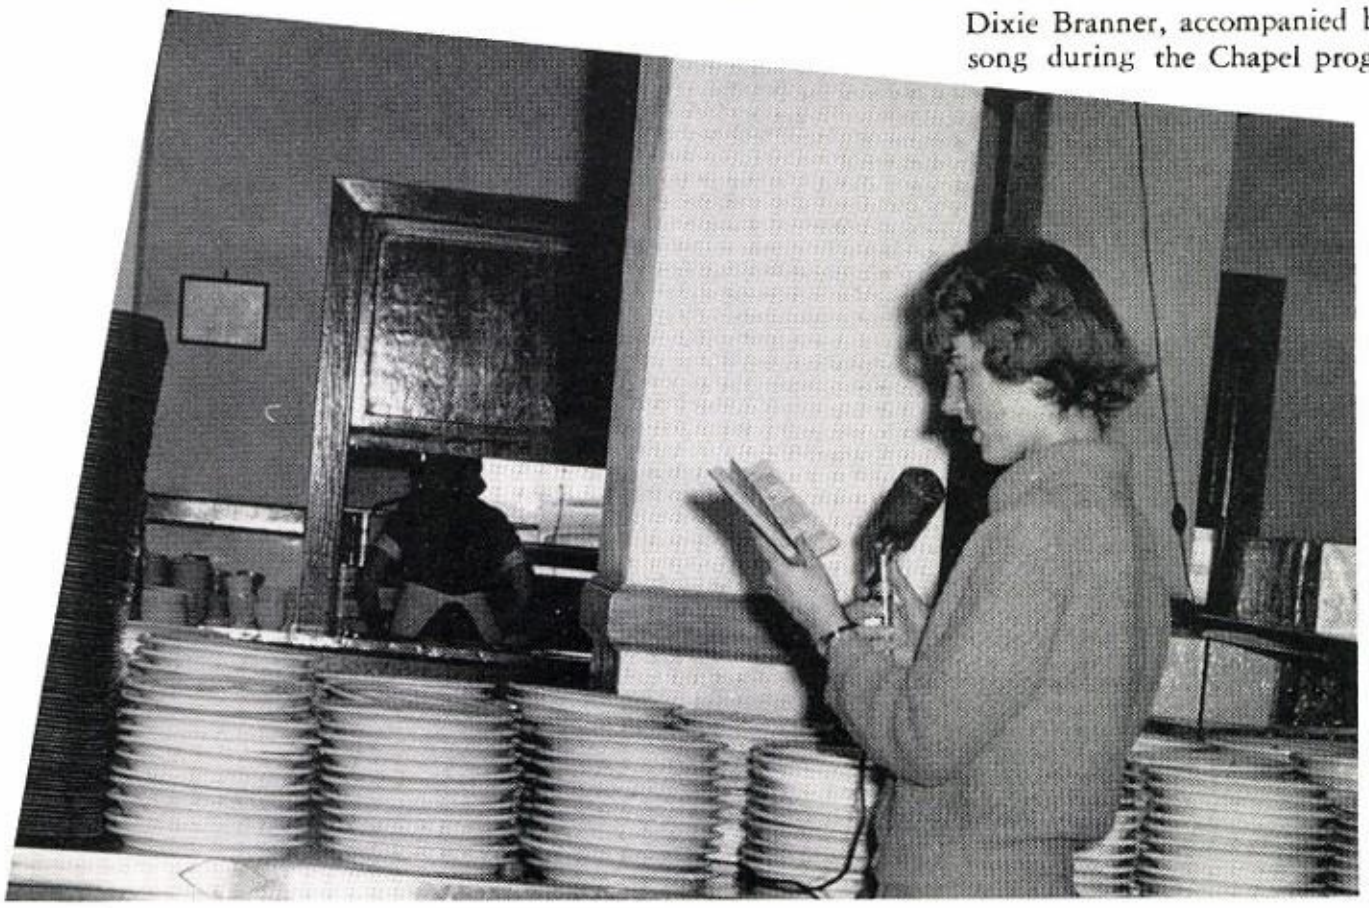


Mr. Wright shows movies on his latest book, FORTRESS OF FAITH, at Wednesday Morning Chapel.

Each year the Tri-Hi-Y attempts to strengthen students contact with God by means of Christian programs, activities, and such.

This year they have presented such things as Wednesday Morning Chapel and the daily blessing. We feel that through these activities our youth will lead better and more Christian lives in their future.

Dixie Branner, accompanied by Sandy Russell, renders a song during the Chapel program.



Kay Kipps, active Tri-Hi-Y member, gives the blessing at lunch.

Jean Winans had the honor of being chosen Key Club Sweetheart this year. She was elected by majority vote of the club members and was presented a white blazer with the Key Club emblem on it.

The Kiwanis Key Club at James Wood is a junior civic organization based on the same principles as its sponsoring body, the Kiwanis Club. Its chief aims are to promote character in the member and to work on community and school projects. The club consists of 24 members who are invited to join the club. Some of our past projects are: the construction of a picnic shelter in the recreation park, a sign erected in front of our school, and the donation of many books to our library. The Key Club spreads good will both for the club and James Wood High School.

Some of the qualifications for membership are: the student must be a sophomore, junior, or senior. They are chosen on the basis of moral conduct, civic interest, and they must maintain a C average. This year the club erected another sign identifying James Wood High School, held a light bulb sale, gave $50 to the school library, assisted the community on Polio, Crippled Children, and Heart Fund Drives, and had billboard road signs erected on Safety and Church activities.

Joe Pasquali, WINC's disc jockey, spins the records and keeps things moving at the Key Club Christmas Dance.

The music is soft and dreamy, and the night dances on.

Time out for food as the teenagers head for the snack bar.

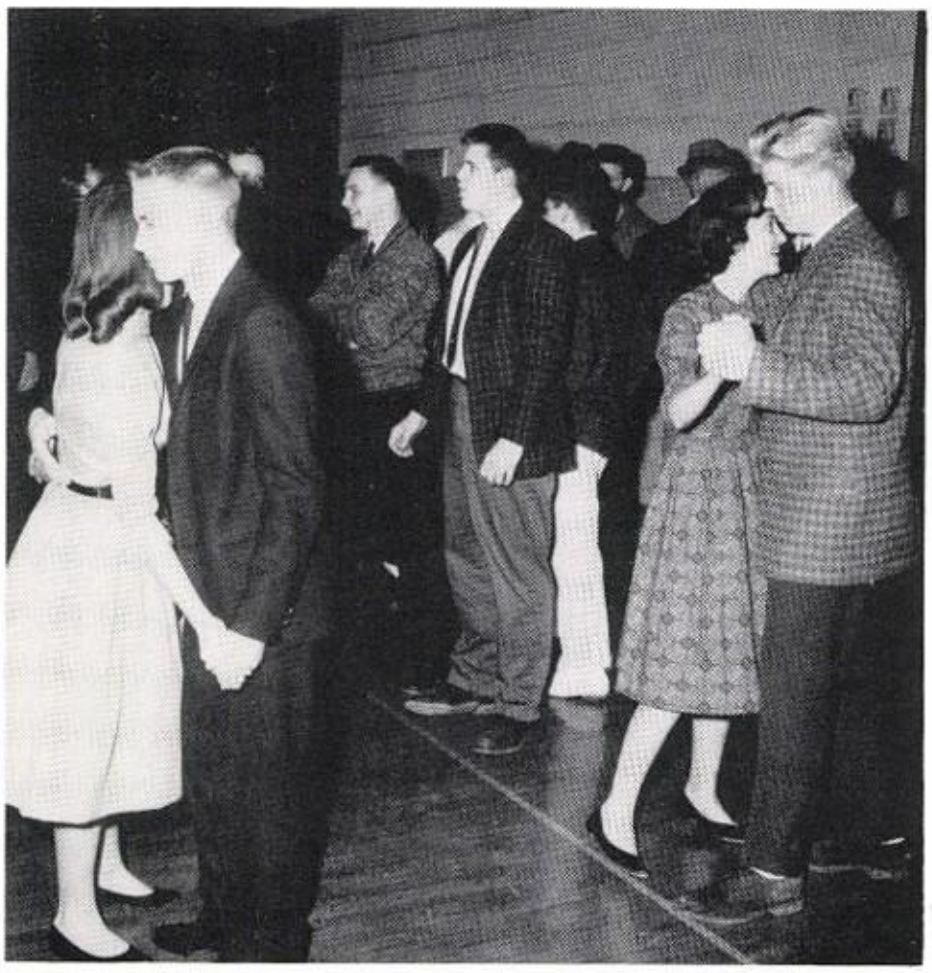
The tempo is fast and full of rhythm as the dance contest gets into swing.

THE KEY TO SUCCESS

James Wood's Key Club is one of the most organized and active groups here at school.

This year they have presented a Christmas Dance at the War Memorial Building and a delicious Pancake Supper which both proved very successful. The members also joined forces to sell light bulbs and to import new Key Club jackets.

We feel that this club is a great asset to our community and that their efforts are well appreciated.



Fun and dancing continue through the night.

The Kiwanis and Key Club members serve the never ending line of pancake eaters.

These guests discover that coffee and pancakes taste wonderful together.

4-H

The boys' 4-H at James Wood consists of both senior and junior groups. The boys are improving and learning how to keep accurate record books. This year as a project they are taking forestry. Other projects include conservation, gardening, and poultry and livestock care. The boys are taught by Mr. Joe Whitman, Assistant County Agent. There are fifty-three members.

The purpose of the Future Homemakers of America Chapter is to encourage students to take part in homemaking activities in their parental homes and to help prepare them for establishing their own homes in the future. The Future Homemakers of America Chapter has held regular monthly meetings and members have presented skits pertaining to the goals of the Chapter. Guest speakers have given interesting and enjoyable talks on a variety of subjects. One of the informative addresses was given by Mayor Claude Smalts of Winchester who spoke on Civil Defense.

The Chapter conducted the annual rose sale and cupcake sale. The proceeds from these activities went to the National Foundation Polio Drive. During F.H.A. Week, which is the first week in April, the Chapter gave a tea for the faculty. Sponsoring the Daughters of the Stars Federation meeting was a highlight activity of the year. The chapter held the Mother and Daughter Banquent that brought the mothers and daughters into a closer relationship.

Our countries future will depend upon the ability of the citizens who manage our government and control our interests to meet and shoulder these responsibilities successfully.

James Wood's Future Homemakers Club feels that just as everything else begins at home, so does success. Therefore, they are beginning today to plan successful homes for tomorrow through learning, doing, and sewing.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agriculture leadership, co-operation, and citizenship.

Their 135 members this year participated in conducting 462 agriculture enterprises by growing 460 acres of crops, 80 acres of fruits and vegetables and the raising of 470 head of livestock and 43,000 poultry birds.

As a means of developing leadership, all members served on some committees studying and practicing parliamentary procedure. They conducted and planned monthly meetings, put on several radio programs, and sponsored a Father-Son Banquet this year. One member received the American Farmer Degree, the highest honor the National Association can bestow on a young farmer. The club helped our communities by organizing "Keep Virginia Green Crews," preventing forest fires, setting out 10,000 pine tree seedlings, and repairing farm machinery.

The club this year sponsored an Agriculture Fair, Pure Bred Swine Chains, and cooperated with the Polio Drive and overseas organization. This past Christmas they helped to collect 60 baskets of food for the needy.

During the year the F.F.A. club took care of the school lawn and shrubbery of about 30 acres, and cooperated with other departments of the school through use of their shop tools and equipment.

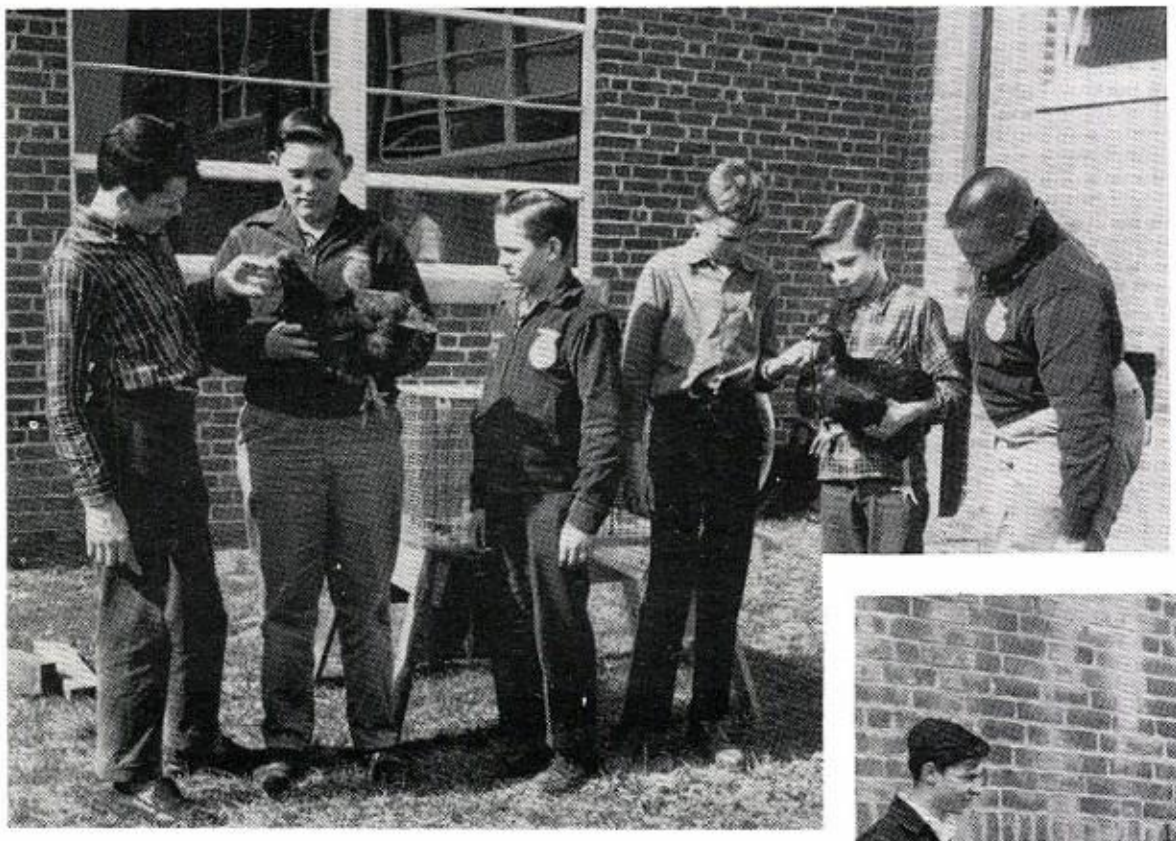
AGRICULTURE . . . . . .



The fine points of poultry raising are discussed.

Our future farms of America will depend on the knowledge and skill of those who manage them. Through this belief our future farmers, at James Wood prepare today for their great job in the future. Through modern techniques in agriculture they are finding this preparation.

This year they have kept the school grounds in top condition, have had experience in soil research and as a whole have found great enjoyment in all such activities.

Our school grounds and shrubbery receive the attention of this organization.

The Choral Class has become an important part of curriculum of James Wood High School this year. Under the direction of Miss Joanne Beazley, the chorus has grown to sixty-four in number and is composed of sophomore, junior, and senior students.

Qualifications for membership are defined only in that a student must possess a degree of vocal music. The Choir is divided into groups according to sections, and each group receives one hour of supplementary instruction each week.

J. Brannon, C. Lake, S. Haun, R. Holliday, K. Kline, N. Baggerly, M. Armstrong, C. Owings, L. Eaton, M. Loy. M. Heishman, J. Fishback, M. Davis, B. Aylor, P. Greene, B. Belford, E. Shiley, D. Largent, K. Marshall, J. Hockman, D. Grubb, J. See, T. Yancy, D. Hartley, L. Settle.

Two rewarding highlights of the year were the annual Christmas and Spring concerts which featured, "It's a Grand Night For Singing" by Richard Rodgers, "Were You There" by R. Vaughan Williams, "Younger Generation" by Aaron Copland, and "Climb Ev'ry Mountain" by Richard Rodgers.

This year nine members of the Choral Class were chosen to go to All-State. They were Donnie Hottinger, Sandy Haun, Carolyn Beam, Charlotte Rose, Neal Painter, Kenneth Marshall, Donald Largent, Edward Shiley, and Fred Wilson.

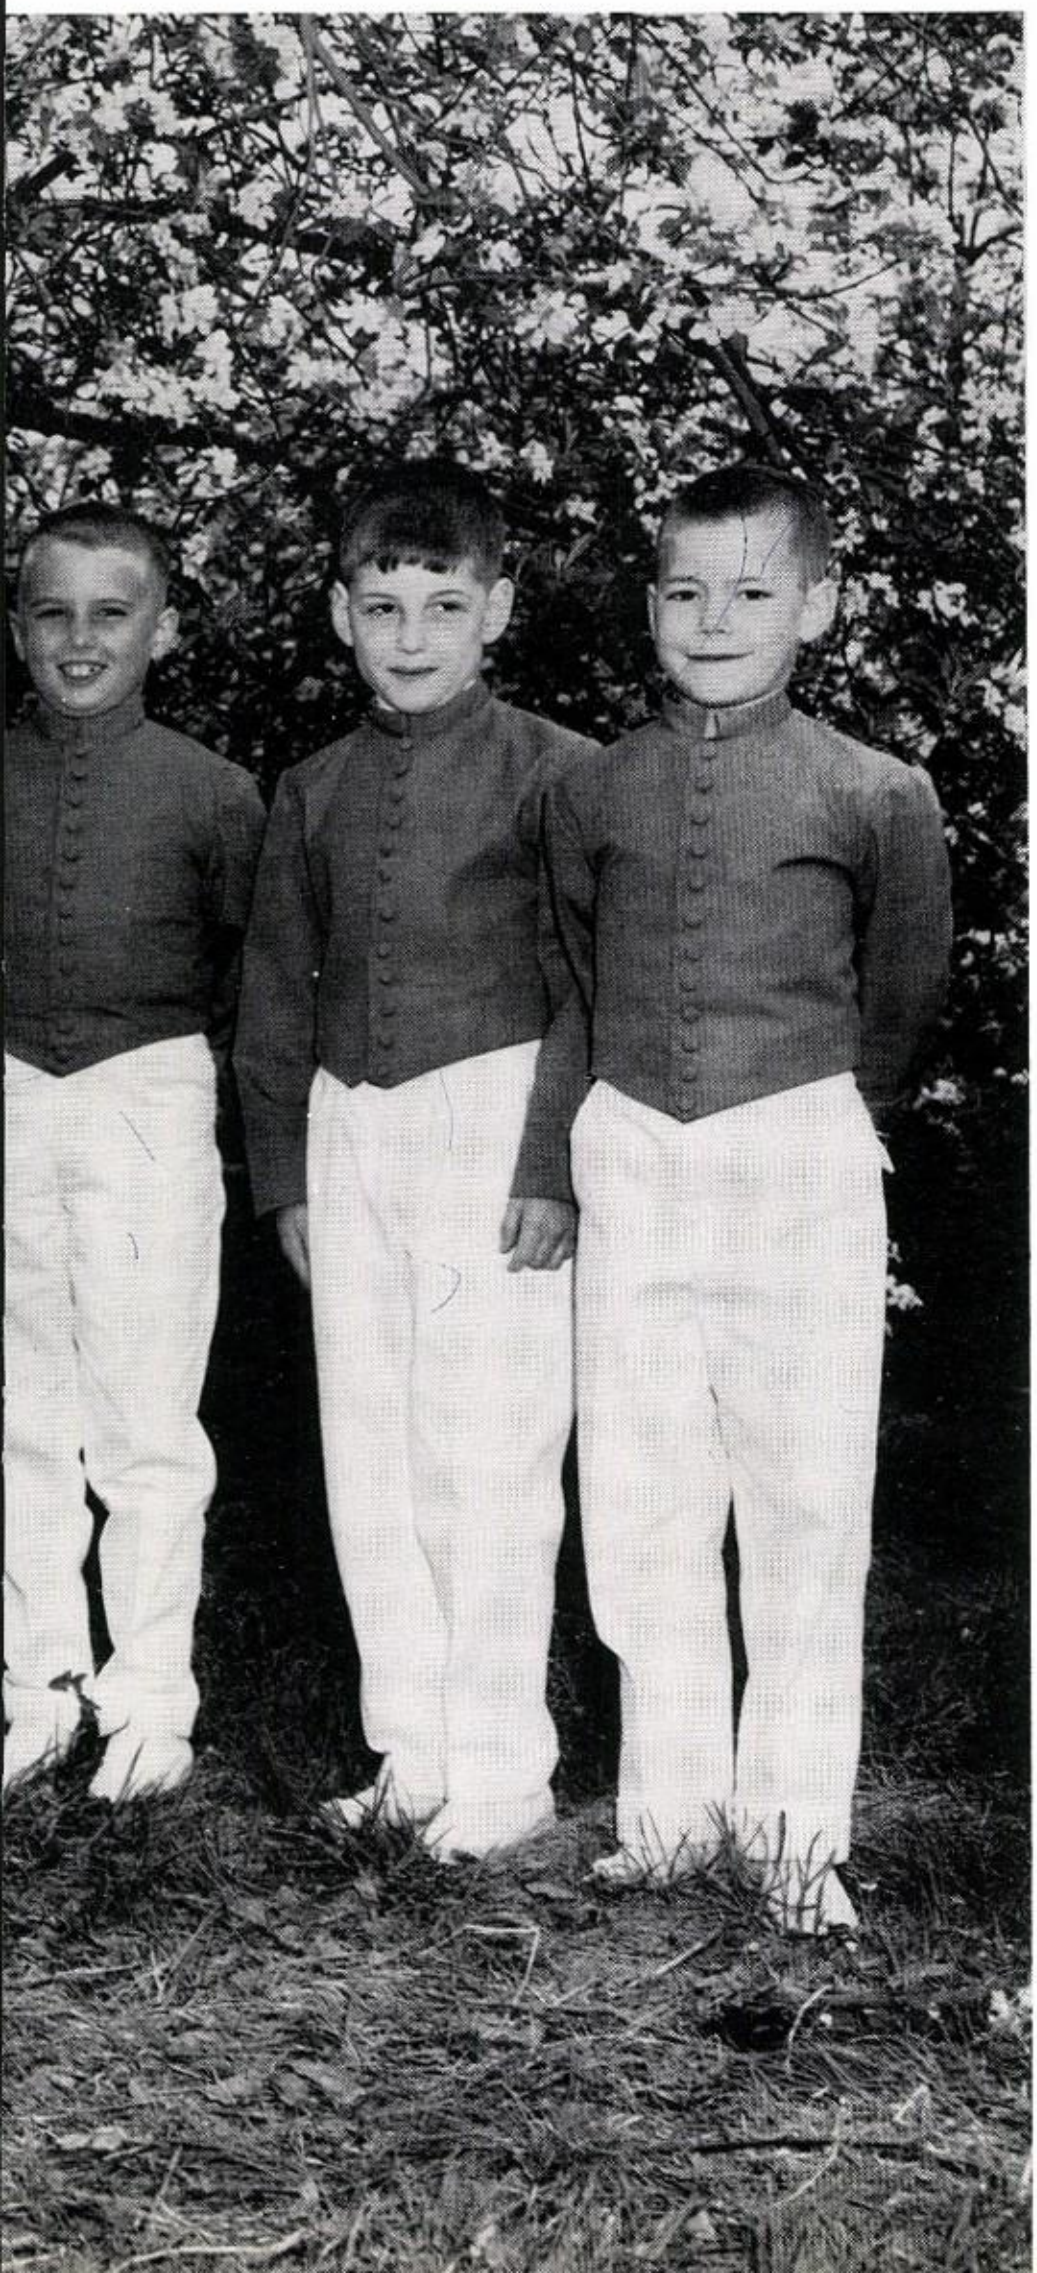
SPECIAL EVENTS



The friendly atmosphere at the get acquainted dances, the excited air of homecoming, the tense drama of play night — all these things help to make our school year bright and cheery with just that touch of excitement that makes our school year a great success. Without our "Special Events" there would be little to look forward to and nothing to instill in our hearts the lively school spirit which we all feel.

. . . . COME TO THE FAIR

Members of the F.H.A. discuss various displays with the judges.

These girls find a new and exciting way to put a tractor to good use.

Each fall an annual Frederick County Fair is held on the Armory grounds in Winchester. Local Home Economics Clubs, Future Farmer's Clubs, 4-H Clubs, and Women's Home Demonstration Clubs, participate and contribute various articles in order to make the fair a great success. Vegetables, cakes, pies, cookies, fruit, and livestock displays become great points of interest and add delightful touches to a day at the fair.

The judges sample and check the cakes and pies.

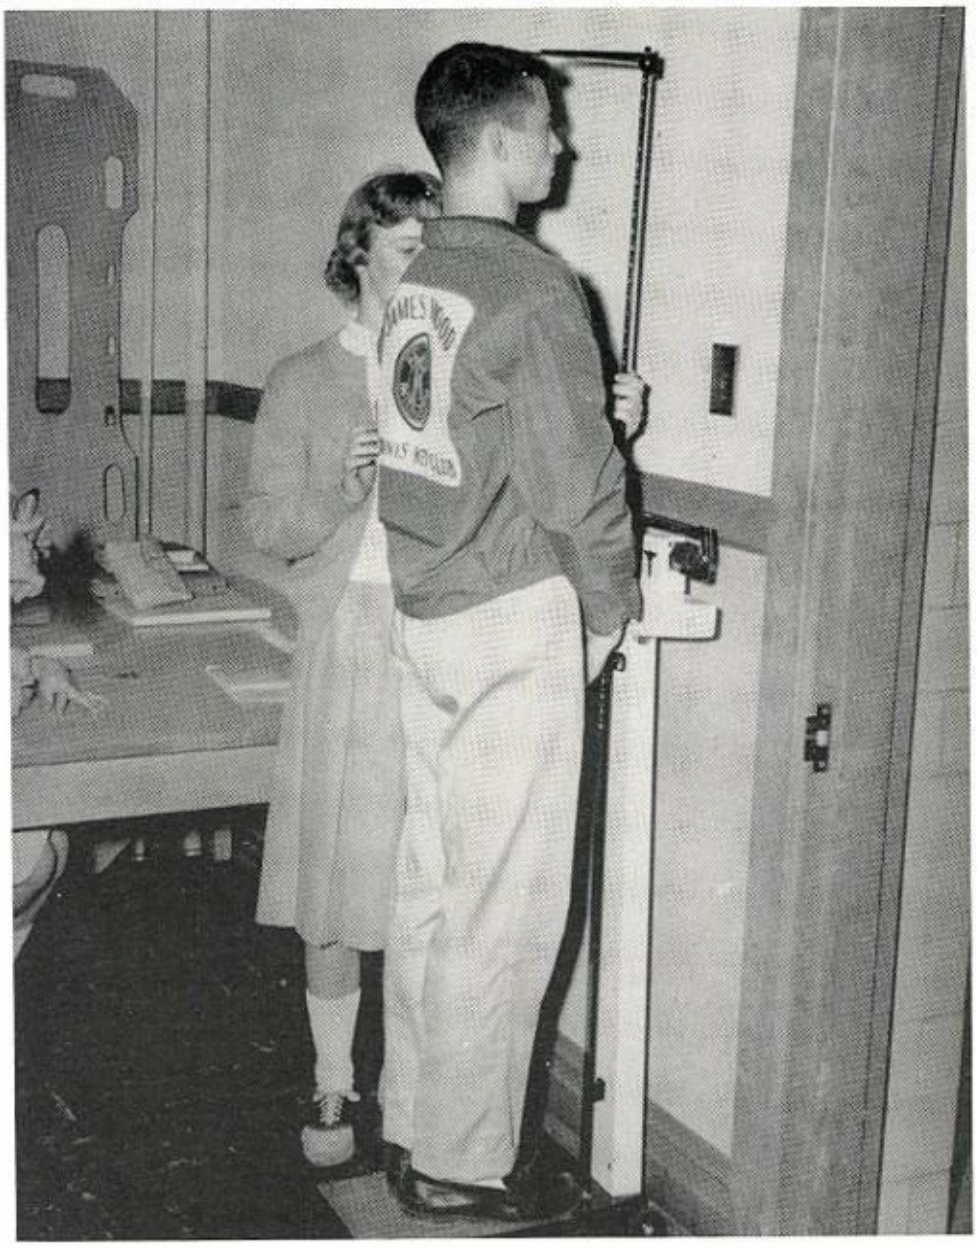
These girls bring out the most vivid points of the vegetables and fruit displays.

THE ROAD TO GOOD HEALTH

Each year our Nurse's Club, in cooperation with the doctors and dentists of Winchester, sponsor a clinic for all students attending James Wood.

The students are weighed and measured in order to determine any abnormalities or serious deficiencies. Their eyes and ears are also checked so that any defects might be found and corrected. We feel that by stressing good physical health and clean living here in high school, the young people are more likely to secure better health and greater ability, both physically and mentally, in later life.

Mrs. Zuckerman, our school nurse, carefully checks Betty Rotruck's teeth for any decays or irregular conditions.



Bob Carter is weighed and measured by a future nurse, Kay Kipps.

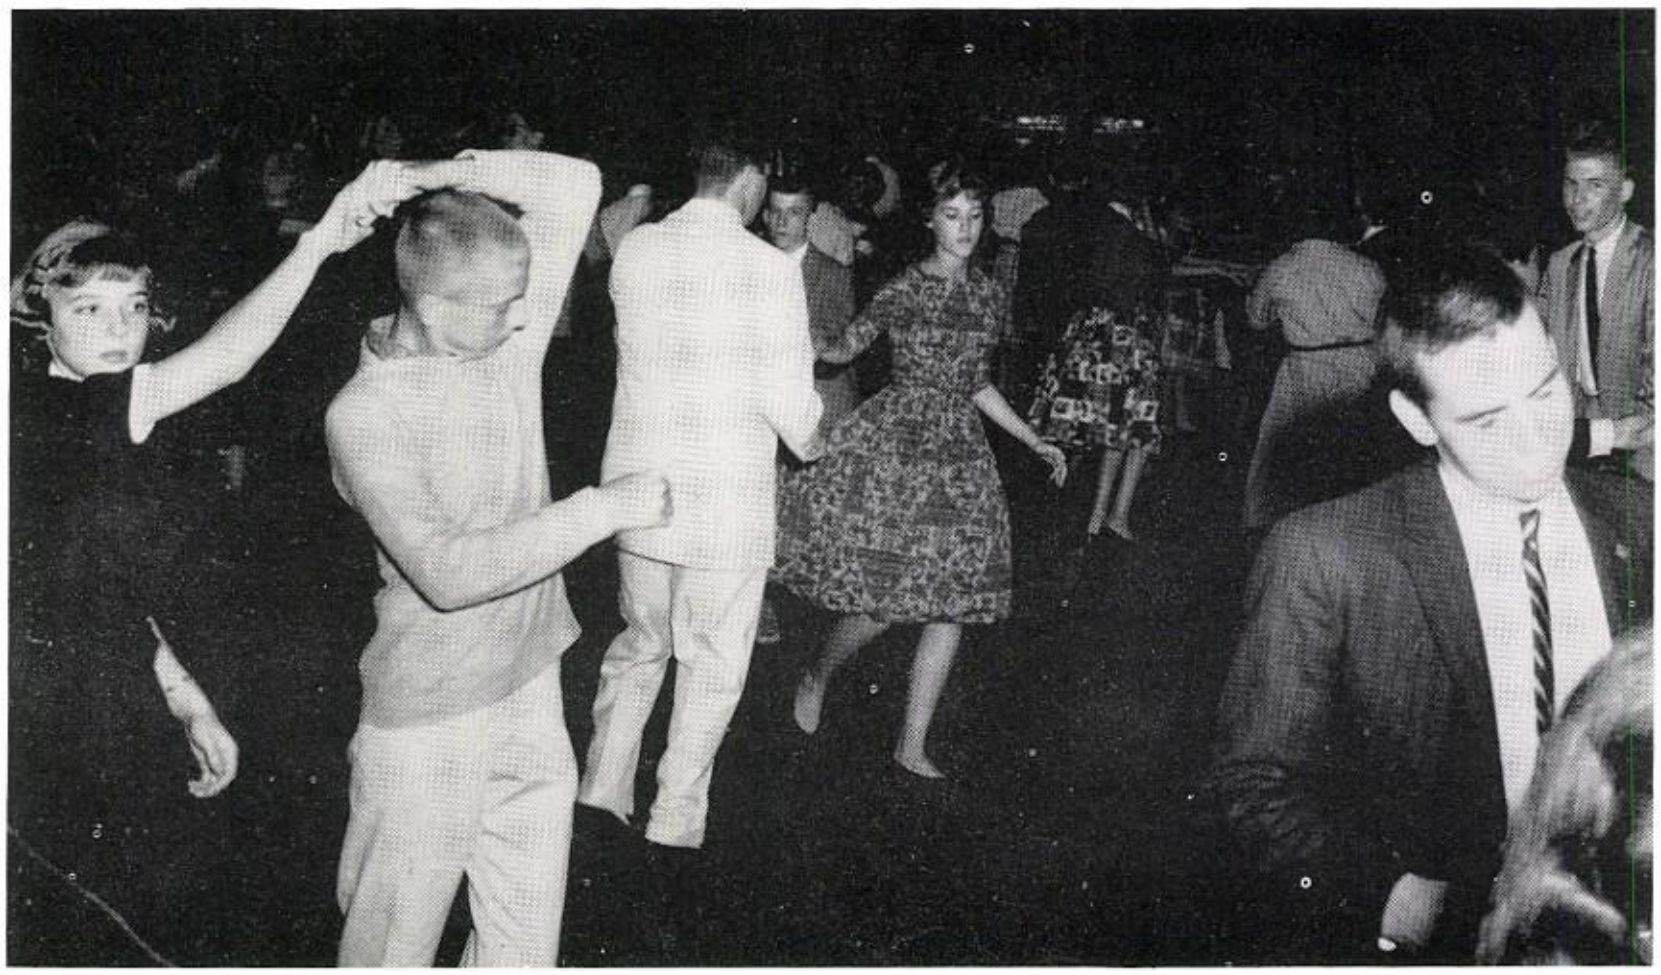
Kay Kipps continues to weigh and measure as she learns the fundamentals of a good nurse.

MAKE NEW FRIENDS . .

Eighth graders become more at ease as they sway to the soft music.

Each September, due to our large student body, the S.C.A. sponsored "Get Acquainted Dances". Through these dances, the new students met their classmates and began to feel more at home in their strange surroundings.

The upper classmen found it an opportune time to talk of their past years and to plan for future events which they will share together.



A fast tempo, light feet, and plenty of pep made up the freshmen "Get Acquainted Night".

BUT KEEP THE OLD

The highlight of the sophomore's night proved to be the donuts and cokes which were served to everyone.

Sweet music put the seniors in a gay mood.

Once again the seniors rocked as the night drew to a close.

CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL PROGRAM

In commemoration of the Civil War, the S.C.A. and the History Department sponsored an assembly this year in co-operation with the Civil War Centennial Commission. Company K, Fifth Virginia Infantry, and Virgil Carrington Jones, famous author, highlighted the program.

Captain Bowers leads Company K into the auditorium.

Miss Lucy Kurtz, daughter of the original leader of Company K, presents the Virginia flag to Captain Bowers.

Mr. Carrington Jones gives an interesting description of one of the famous Confederate guerillas.

Members of the choral group sing famous songs of the South in opening the assembly.

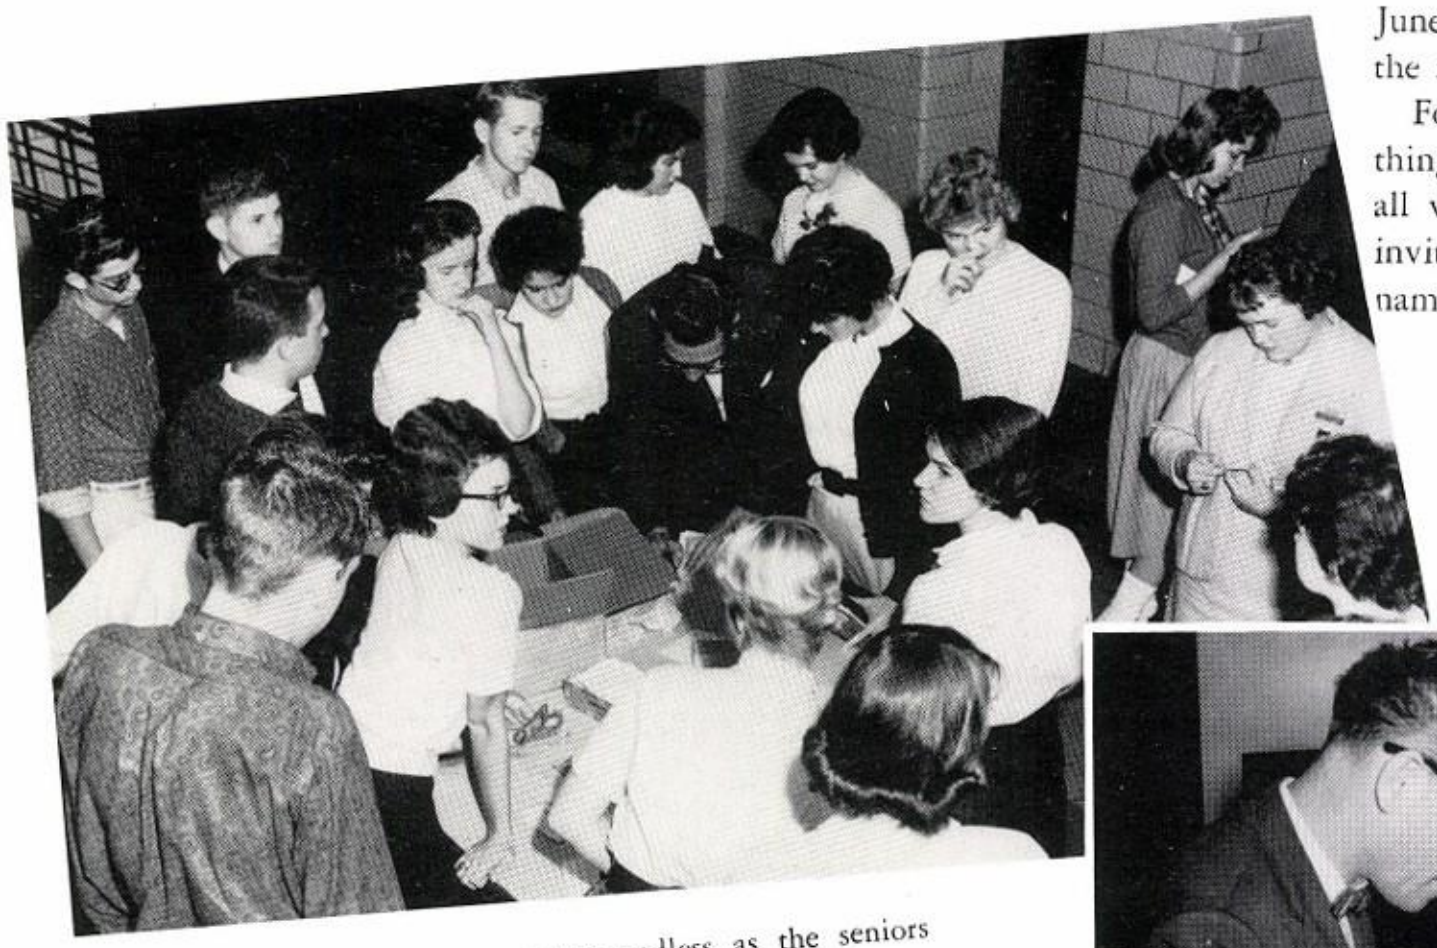
CANDID SHOTS OF THE SENIORS

As the senior class of 1961 graduates this June they will look back with nostalgia on the many things they have done together.

Foremost in their minds will be such things as ring day — a day awaited for by all with anticipation and excitement — and invitation day — the pride in seeing their names engraved on their own name cards.



The list of names seems endless as the seniors wait nervously for their rings.

Sheila Tevault can't help being a little proud as her ring is placed upon her finger by Mr. Posey.

The different prints and engravements are discussed and settled by a table of seniors on Invitation Day.

The seniors leave proudly after they have ordered their invitations and name cards.

WELL-EARNED ACCLAIM - -

Joe Pasquali and Charlie Tait present the outstanding lineman award to Paul Jenkins and the outstanding back award to Phil LaFolette.

The James Wood Touchdown Club was organized in 1955 when Charles Simons received the award. Since then it has presented awards of recognition to such fine athletes as Jim Sprinkle, John Hepler, and Robert Elliot.

We feel that these boys have done a fine job in displaying fine plays as well as good sportsmanship for our school. Through these awards we wish to thank them wholeheartedly.

Chuck Thompson, famed announcer of the Baltimore Colts, presents the touchdown awards.

Our outstanding football players receive well-deserved praise.

1960-61 HOMECOMING QUEEN AND HER COURT

HIGHLIGHTS OF HOMECOMING

Each year the Pep Club, in co-operation with the Physical Education Department, work together to put on a Homecoming which will long be remembered by the players and the students. This year, the Queen and her princesses, who reigned over the night's activities, were chosen by the football boys and everyone agreed wholeheartedly on their choice.

Chuck Triplett, as Colonel James Wood, gallops up the field when our team scores another touchdown.

Mayor Claude Smalts crowns our Queen, Carol Day, while the others look on admiringly.

Mayor Smalts can't seem to take his eyes off our lovely Queen.

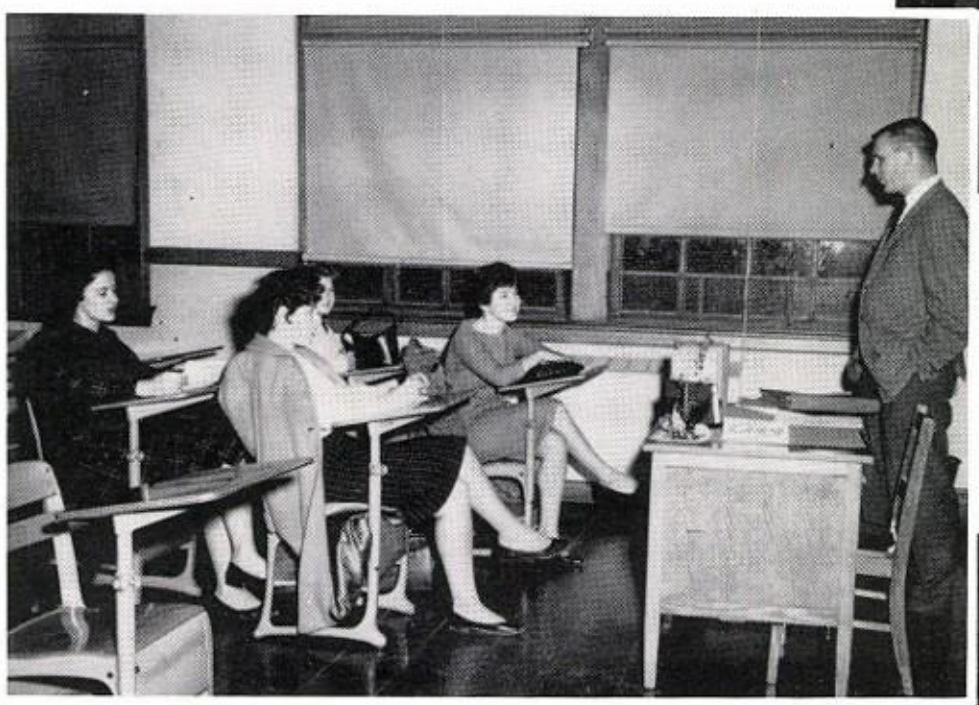
SHEPHERD - - - MADISON -.- - V.P.I.

Higher education has become not only a want but a necessity in this modern world. In order to secure a good position and a high standing in later life, one must begin his preparation today.

Therefore each year James Wood sponsors a college day, during which time, the Juniors and Seniors are given opportunity to become better acquainted with colleges of their choice. Through this program, we hope to encourage all students to attend college or to further their education in other schools of higher learning.

Sergeant Williams points out the college program offered by the Army to two interested young men.



The representative from William and Mary College finds interested and attentive listeners.

"Nursing is a fine profession," explains the representative from Rockingham Hospital.

Roger Wright discusses the possibility of his entering Shepherd College.

. . . . BEYOND THE SEA

In May the Juniors presented the Seniors with a prom, whose underwater theme was "Beyond the Sea." The entire gymnasium, decorated by Junior committees, appeared to be a vast scene on the bottom of the deep sea. While dancing, one could see such things as hidden treasure boxes, fish of all kinds and colors, and mermaids swimming to the sweet music.

The Collegians from Richmond provides wonderful music and plenty of entertainment.

Feet become light and quick as the tempo picks up.

Our class sponsors, Mr. John Hodson and Mrs. Shirley Place, decorate the piano with the help of Junior students.

The surface of the water must not be forgotten as members of the decorating committee see that everything is in place.

"OH MY DARLING CLEMENTINE"

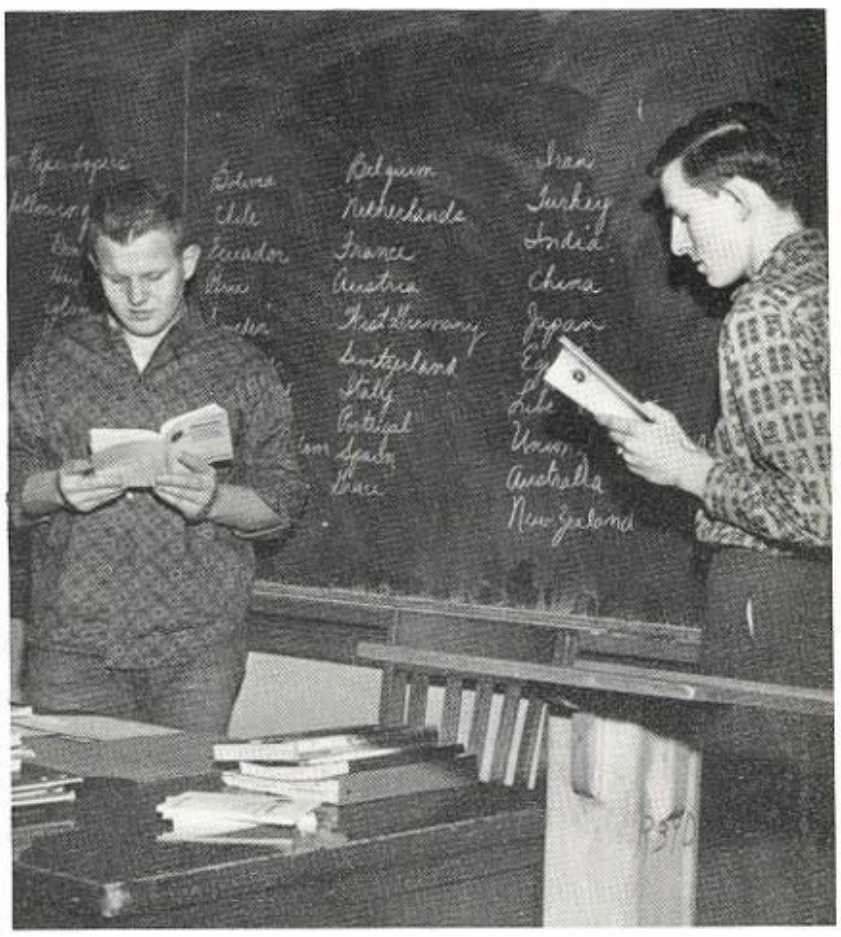
Mrs. Place instructs these girls on the voice and expression for "Clementine."

Roger Wright and Mickey Arttrip begin to set the props for "action."

Each year the Senior Class along with their sponsors put on a Senior Play. This year we chose the comedy "Clementine" which we felt would be enjoyed by all students.

Mr. Hodson, Mrs. Place, the committees, and the play cast all worked together to give us a play which will long be remembered as truly "great!!"

These Seniors rehearse once more before reading aloud.



Fred Wilson and Robert Johnson exchange conversation as they try out for parts in the play.

Sparked With Enthusiasm

It soars with an explosive roar of enthusiasm and howling screams of success; it tumbles suddenly into momentary silence only to burst forth again in a greater glory. This is school spirit!

This very spirit has urged our team onward and made us proud of them in every way. Although they may have lost a game, they won the respect and admiration of each team they played. Their fine sportsmanship has won for them the hardest victory of all — that of honor.

Whether on the gridiron, the basketball court, the track or the baseball diamond, we have seen the great improvement and progress which our teams have made within the past ten years.

Through this progress and due to their constant attention to fair play, we can truly say, "We've got a team, nobody's prouder!"

This year the basketball team gave James Wood something to be proud of. Their record for the regular season was 15-1. In the tournament they won three games to capture the District 10 and the Regional Championships. With an over-all record of 18-2, the Colonels have again had a very successful year through team play and excellent coaching.

Seven players graduated from the team this year but new players such as Granville Kerns and Ronnie Kerns have had an opportunity to gain valuable experience that will add strength to next year's team. Coach James Casey has more than proved his ability to give top flight coaching by the fact that his teams have been District Champions for four consecutive years.

Mr. John D. Hodson did an excellent job in coaching the Junior Varsity players this year. The impressive record of the Privates was nine won and five lost.

Two of the most promising freshman players on the squad were Martin Dietz and David Wolfe. Martin, 5' 10" weighing 125 lbs. will go to the Varsity team next year. David, 6' 2" weighing 154 lbs. looks very promising for the future.

This year the Privates consisted of many eighth graders who showed great potential. Next year they should have a power-house team. To them we wish — Good Luck!

We the students would like to express our appreciation to the James Wood coaching staff of 1960-61.

Because of the sportsmanship taught by their coaches, our athletes will become better citizens of tomorrow.

This representative group of boys made James Wood's year of 1960 a perfect one as far as the district championship is concerned. All of the present members were on the 1960 District 10 Championship Team.

The coaches, Archie Manuel, Paul Hillyard, and Glen Workman, have already produced a championship team, and we wish them equal success with the track team next year.

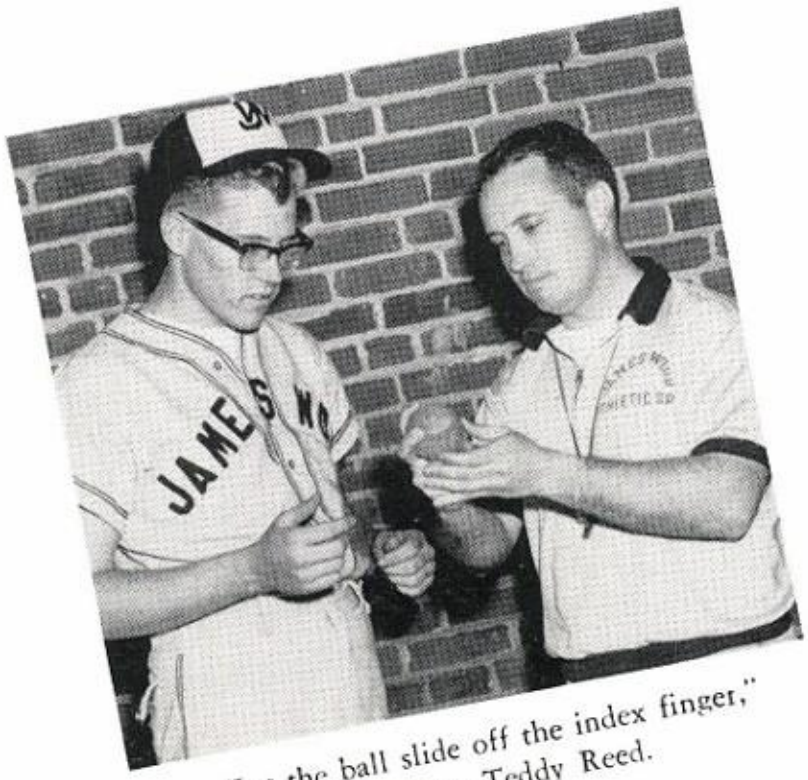
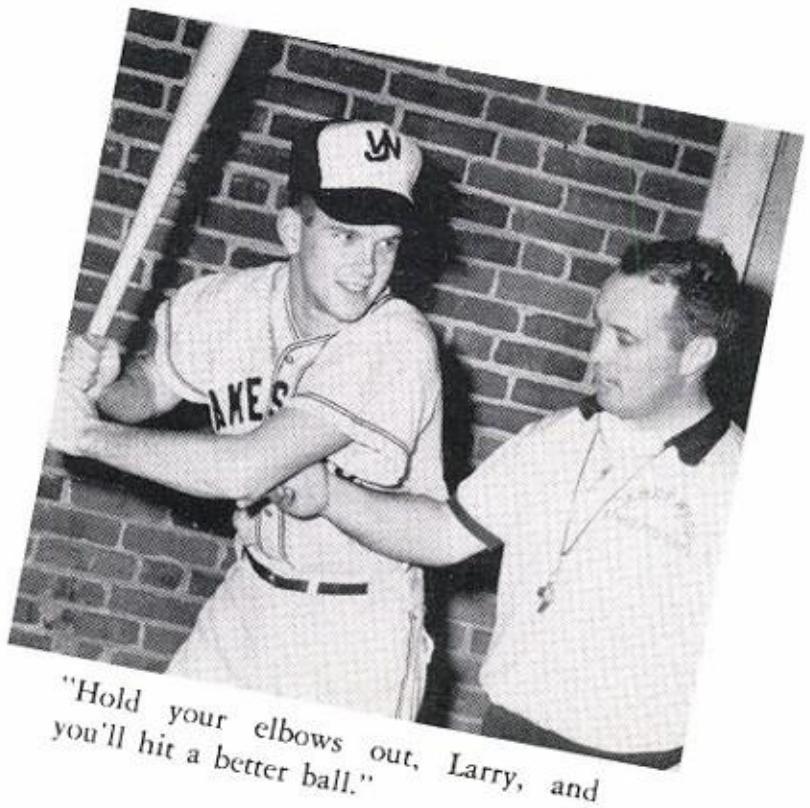
Today baseball is considered as one of our country's main sports. At James Wood many outstanding players have been produced in the last few years. Our school can be proud of its teams records. Last year their record was nine wins and only one defeat. This explains the winning of the Northern Division of District 10 for our Colonels.

Such veterans as Shockey, Orndorff, Hockman, Carter, Griffith, Reed, and other players made up a well balanced squad. Baseball was a spring event which climaxed a successful sports program during the year.



"Let the ball slide off the index finger," says Mr. Casey to Teddy Reed.



"Hold your elbows out, Larry, and you'll hit a better ball."

The intramurals program consisted of the following sports: hockey, volleyball, basketball, and softball. The turnout of girls for these sports was better than in previous years. Through the interest shown this year in intramurals, further expansion is expected next year.

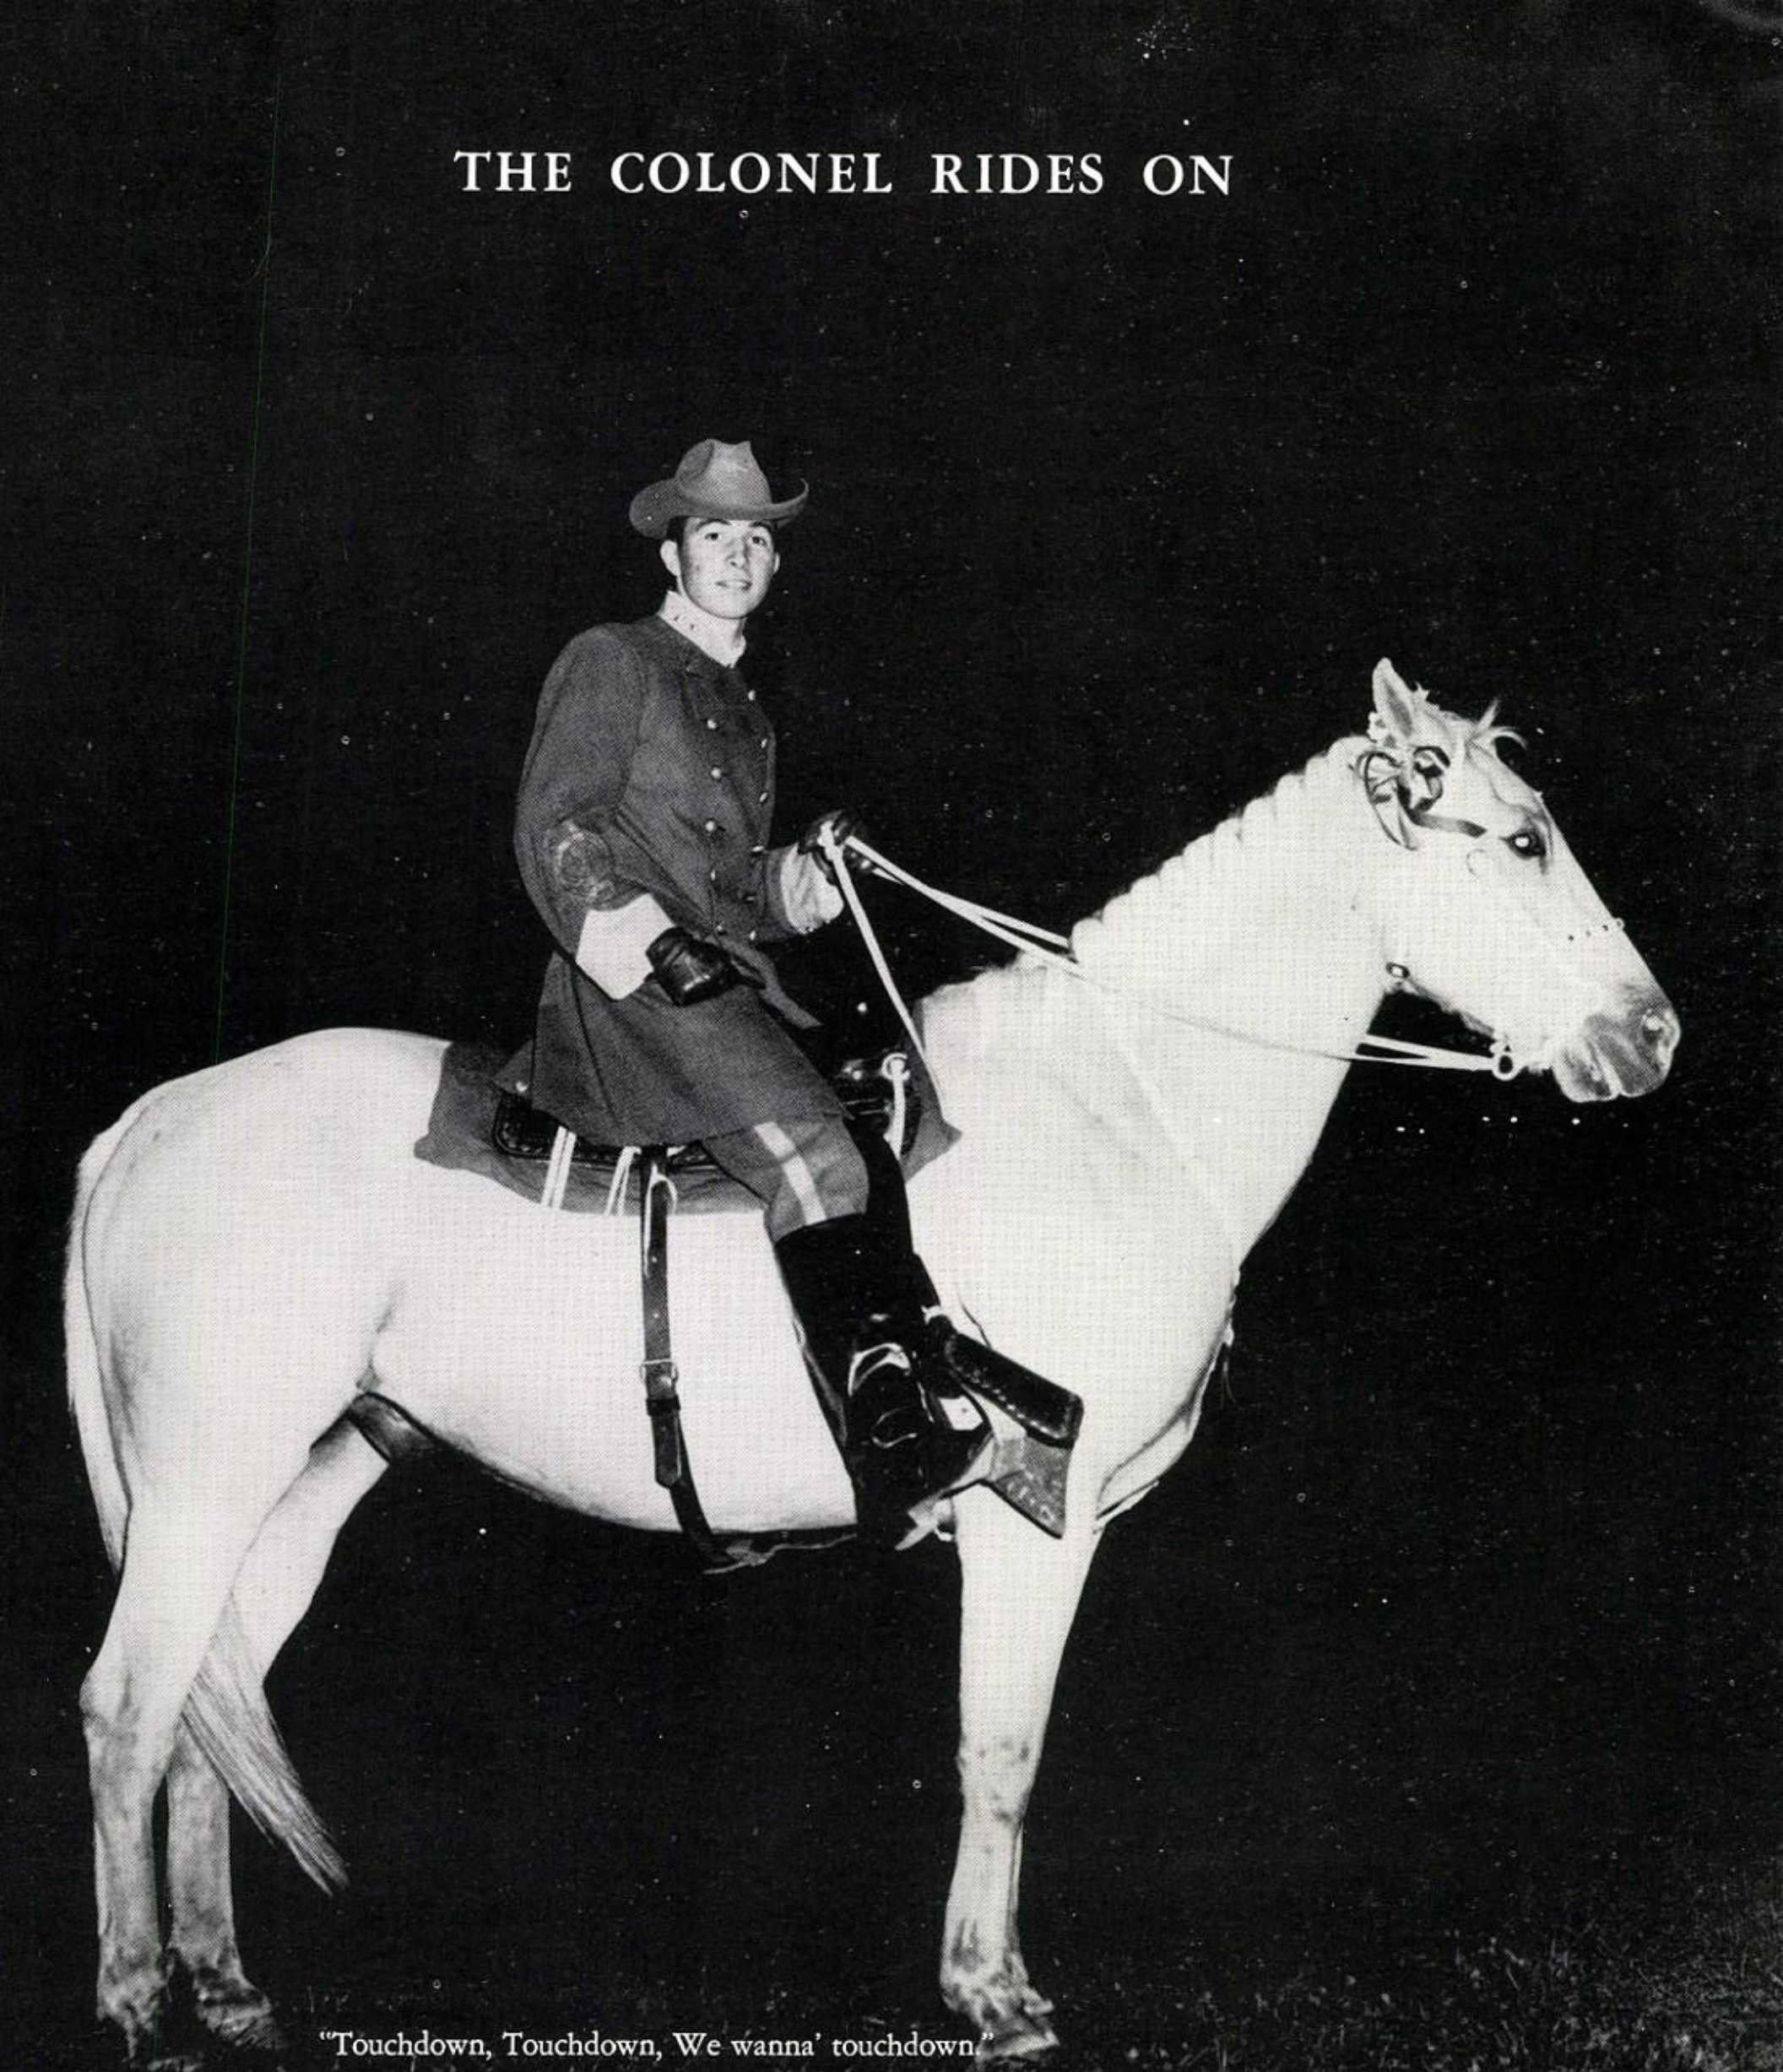
THE COLONEL RIDES ON



"Touchdown, Touchdown, We wanna' touchdown."

The night air is crisp and cold, the cheerleaders are jumping and screaming with joy. The ball is on our five yard line — play begins again!

The moment is tense and exciting. Then over the line go the Colonels — it's a touchdown!!! Amidst the cheering, the yelling, and screaming, a fully-dressed Colonel, astride a golden palomino, comes galloping down the field. It seems, at first, as if a ghost of Colonel James Wood, is again riding the field. For "Chuck" Triplett, our "Colonel" is always on hand to keep up our spirits and raise our morale.

Although college, jobs, and the armed services may take us far from Frederick County, old haunts will long remain in our memories. The corner drug store where we all met, the cheery, bright Christmas displays in our store's windows, the stylish clothes in the shops which we gazed upon with misty longing — all these represent our county and the businessmen who served our needs and supported our yearbook.
